New York Judge Says Liner Bremen Is Pirate Vessel

Magistrate, Freeing Five Men on Charges of Rioting on German Ship, States "Black Flag of Piracy" Was Proudly Flown on Craft

ONLY ONE MAN HELD FOR TRIAL

Associated Press
New York, Sept. 6.—Denouncing the Hitler regime and describing the German liner Bremen as a "pirate ship with the black flag of piracy proudly flying aloft," Magistrate Louis Brodsky today dismissed charges against five defendants who participated in the Bremen riot last July 26.

Magistrate Brodsky held a sixth defendant for assault and violation of the Sullivan gun-carrying law.

With regard to four of the defendants—Arthur Blair, William Bailey, William Howe and George Blackwell—the magistrate ruled their presence aboard the German liner did not constitute unlawful assembly. As to the fifth defendant, Vincent McCormack, the court held there was a variance of testimony which caused doubt that McCormack struck Detective Matthew Solomon.

The sixth defendant, charged with assault, was Edward Drolette.

EVIDENCE LACKING

"There is not one word of evidence connecting the defendants, other than Drolette and McCormack, with any act in violation of the law," the court held, adding:

"These men were part of a group of persons (on the Bremen) protesting the flaunting of the German emblem, which they had a right to do so long as they did not disturb the peace. . . . It may well be . . . that the flying of this emblem (the Nazi swastika on board the Bremen) in New York harbor was, rightly or wrongly, regarded by these defendants as a gratuitously brazen flaunting of an emblem which symbolizes all that is antithetical to American ideals of the God-given and inalienable right of all people to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness."

NEW U.S. CONSUL

Montreal, Sept. 6. (Canadian Press).—James Hugh Kealey, official of the United States consulate here, has been named consul in charge at Salonika, Greece, it was announced today.

PARIS-ALGIERS FLIGHT RECORD

Canadian Press from Havas
Le Bourget, France, Sept. 6.—Averaging around 200 miles an hour both ways, the famous French transatlantic flier, Jean Mermoz, today made a round-trip Paris-Algiers flight between dawn and dusk.

He took off at 7.45 this morning, reached Algiers at 11.50 a.m., took off at 1.13 and reached Le Bourget at 5.46 this afternoon. The round-trip distance is more than 7,000 miles.

Fair to Open Here To-morrow

Racing in Afternoon, With Evening Fireworks, Midway and Displays

With more settled weather promising to swell attendances at the British Columbia Agricultural fair at the Willows, officials of the association today looked for larger crowds than have been recorded in recent years, as they prepared for the opening to-morrow morning.

Many of the exhibits have already been set up and all buildings will be open, W. H. Mearns, secretary, stated. As a special opening feature to-morrow evening, visitors will be treated to a pyrotechnic display in front of the grandstand, to which admission will be free for the event.

Mayor David Leeming, following an inspection of the buildings, grounds, barns and stables, yesterday, voiced an appeal to the citizens generally to give the fair the support it would merit.

FINE CONDITION

"The buildings, grounds, stables and grandstand are in better shape than I have ever seen them. I'd like to congratulate the committee on the fine appearance and cleanliness of the site," the mayor stated. He looked forward to larger crowds this year and urged the public to attend.

"It is the city's exhibition and it is up to the citizens to support it. I hope to see several more take out membership in the association to give it the financial assistance it needs and merits," he said.

Wednesday afternoon would be a civic holiday, Mayor Leeming stated, adding his action in declaring the half day off was aimed to make "Citizens' Day" the usual big feature of the exhibition.

MIDWAY ATTRACTIONS

The midway, which the concessionaire states is bigger and better than it has been for years, will be one of the chief attractions to-morrow, while the opening of the racing meet will also draw hundreds of citizens and visitors to the oval.

Arrangements were being made today to have Mayor Leeming present prizes to the winners of the Port Angeles to Victoria canoe derby before the fireworks in the evening. The presentation would most probably be made at 8 o'clock before the grandstand, while the pyrotechnic display will follow at about 8.30 o'clock.

Those exhibits which are not in place to-morrow in the various buildings will be installed over the weekend to set the fair in full swing on Monday.

Federal displays and articles of a perishable nature will be on view by the beginning of next week.

Hitler Watches Army Manoeuvres

Celle, Germany, Sept. 6.—Reichsfuehrer Hitler, as supreme commander, arrived here today by plane to inspect the closing operations of the army's first big manoeuvres since the Versailles Treaty.

Fashioning Masts For the King's New Yacht

When wooden masts were wanted for the King's new yacht, the builders had to look to the forests of Vancouver Island, where stand the straightest and tallest firs in the world. In the above picture are shown the two logs which were selected to fill the King's order. One has been cut octagonally, in which condition it will be shipped to England, and two axemen are shown about to start cutting the second log. One of the timbers is 100 feet long with a twenty-inch top and the other is ninety-six feet long with a twenty-two-inch top. It took two months' dicker and much selection to fill this order. The first two trees felled had pitch seams across the heart. These trees were about 130 feet long, but had to be discarded when it was found that the pitch persisted after lopping off four twelve-foot lengths. Two more were broken in falling, the timber standing on a way hillside and the trees snapping when felled across a gulch. To prevent such a recurrence with the 100-foot stick, fifteen or sixteen large timbers were felled in to the gulch and the selected stick dropped across them. The ninety-six-foot stick was cut down from one of 112 feet, losing sixteen feet from pitch. It is twenty-nine inches at the butt and twenty-two at the top, a difference of only seven inches in width in ninety-six feet. The trees were cut on Grouse Mountain, 1,500 feet above Cowichan Lake.

PARALYSIS CASES SPREAD

Alberta Health Officer Says 150 Children Suffer Mildly at Edmonton

Canadian Press
Edmonton, Sept. 6.—Instead of seventeen cases of infantile paralysis in this city as reported, there undoubtedly are between 100 and 200, and to date parents generally have made little effort to co-operate with health authorities in trying to keep down the spread of the disease, Dr. A. C. McGugan, director of the communicable diseases branch, Provincial Department of Health, charged at a special meeting of the board of health.

Dr. McGugan explained the cases not reported were mild and not recognizable as infantile paralysis, with current medical knowledge, but the persons affected were just as capable as serious cases of spreading the disease and giving other serious afflictions of infantile paralysis.

SENT ON MISSION TO THE FAR EAST

Widely known as a British Treasury expert, and chief economic adviser to the government, Sir Frederick Leith-Ross, above, is now on his way from London to Tokyo to initiate diplomatic contact between Britain and Japan on various subjects, including naval questions. On his mission in the Far East, Sir Frederick will advise the Chinese Government on financial and economic conditions in China.

ENGLISH DEAN TO MEET ABERHART

London, Sept. 6.—Prominent in the Social Credit movement here, Very Rev. Hewlett Johnson, Dean of Canterbury, will sail in a few days for Canada on a speaking tour.

He will visit the principal cities of the Dominion. "During my visit," he said today, "I will meet Premier William Aberhart of Alberta, from whom I have already received a cable of welcome."

"I shall also be giving a series of lectures about Social Credit throughout Canada."

CURFEW RULE

Canadian Press
St. Jerome, Que., Sept. 6.—Curfew will ring every evening at 9 o'clock here beginning September 20, and children sixteen years old and under on the streets after that hour will be taken in charge by police. The city council yesterday passed the by-law over which it had argued for two years.

WM. BAGLEY IS EXECUTED

He and Ethan A. McNabb Hanged To-day at San Quentin, California

Associated Press
San Quentin, Calif., Sept. 6.—William Bagley and Ethan Allen McNabb to-day paid with their lives on the scaffold of San Quentin prison for murderous assault while serving life imprisonment terms.

It was the first double execution in California this year.

Bagley had a long criminal record, including a break from the county jail in Bellingham, Wash., and an escape from the Okalla prison in British Columbia.

As recently as last Monday he made a frenzied effort to flee the prison here and escape the rope. He obtained hatchet blades—how prison officials have not learned or revealed—cut three bars from his cell and stepped out. A guard who sought to stop him was felled with a blow from one of the bars, but a moment later Bagley himself lay unconscious, battered down by a trusty.

ARRESTED IN 1929

McNabb, said to be the disowned son of a Boston Back Bay family, was arrested in San Francisco in 1929 while living in luxury aboard a yacht together with Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sampell. Sampell and McNabb both were sent to prison.

PATROLS INCREASE

Toronto, Sept. 6. (Canadian Press).—Sale of beer and wine in the province since July, 1934, has increased Ontario's wage bill by $2,000,000, Arnold N. Smith, deputy chief commissioner of the liquor control board, said today.

Safe of Theatre Is Carried Away

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Thieves broke into the Grandview Theatre here early today and carried off a large safe containing $150.

The thieves entered the building through a skylight, pushed the safe to the rear door and apparently loaded it into a waiting truck or automobile.

FLORIDA FEARS PESTILENCE

Bodies of Storm Victims on Islands Probably Will Be Burned

Associated Press
Miami, Fla., Sept. 6.—The possibility of pestilence—age-old aftermath of wholesale death—confronted authorities today as they faced the task of finding more bodies in Florida's hurricane-ravaged keys went laboriously forward.

Like a wartime corps combing a battle zone after a big drive has passed on, gas-masked armies of men penetrated the lower keys, made a shambles by last Monday's hurricane.

Their job was to recover more bodies of war veterans who perished when the storm raged through their federal emergency relief administration camps. Already the Red Cross estimated the death toll is 256.

FUNERAL PYRES

Funeral pyres may burn in the desolate spots where the veterans were struck down on the keys.

DR. L. J. O'BRIEN PASSES AWAY

Brilliant Young Victoria Scholar Succumbs at Berkeley, Cal.

LATE DR. L. J. O'BRIEN

Death put an untimely end to the scholastic career of one of Victoria's brilliant sons in the passing this morning in Berkeley, California, of Dr. Louis J. O'Brien, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. O'Brien, 1020 Richmond Road.

Dr. O'Brien succumbed after an illness of some months, dying of an obscure ailment which he is believed to have contracted while doing research work in Europe last year and which baffled the medical men who have been attending him.

Born in Spokane thirty-three years ago, Dr. O'Brien came to Victoria with his parents in 1911. He took all his early schooling here, attending the Margaret Jenkins and Victoria High Schools, then proceeded to the University of California at Berkeley. He was graduated in 1923.

Italian Propaganda In Egypt Watched

Associated Press
London, Sept. 6.—Informed sources disclosed today the government is keeping a close watch on what is called anti-British and pro-Italian propaganda in Egypt. These sources said there had been a considerable amount of such propaganda recently. The feeling prevails in informed quarters that the situation would not seriously harm British prestige but would bear watching.

TO START AT ONCE

The committee will begin at once in an endeavor to reach a basis of settlement of the dispute. Its starting point is expected to be the Paris peace proposals once rejected by Italy.

The decision closed a lively day of private negotiations with the Italians at first objecting to inclusion of British on the committee.

French delegates said appointment of the committee implies there will be no hostilities until it has reported back to the Council. Salvador de Madariaga of Spain was appointed its chairman.

LABOR MOVES AGAINST WAR

International Trades Federation Urges League Sanctions Against Italy

Associated Press
Geneva, Sept. 6.—The executive committee of the International Federation of Trades Unions unanimously adopted a resolution today urging the League of Nations to apply "the whole covenant, including sanctions," against the aggressor in the Italo-Ethiopian conflict.

The committee planned to send a copy of the resolution to the American Federation of Labor with an appeal for co-operation by union men in the United States.

An attempt is to be made to present the labor resolution to the Council of the League.

It is planned to send a deputation of four, consisting of a Belgian, a Briton, a Frenchman and an Italian—the latter, of course, being an anti-Fascist in exile.

The committee represented in today's meeting included Britain, France, The Netherlands, Belgium, Switzerland and Czechoslovakia.

League Council Names Delegates of Britain, France, Spain, Turkey and Poland to Seek Conciliation; All Italian-Ethiopian Problems to Be Explored

Progress After Lively Day of Negotiations

By GEORGE HAMBLETON
Canadian Press Staff Writer

Geneva, Sept. 6.—In a public session to-night the Council of the League of Nations formally constituted a committee to seek conciliation of the Italo-Ethiopian dispute—while the Italians stuck to their principle of not treating with Ethiopia at Geneva.

The committee consists of Britain, France, Spain, Turkey and Poland. The Italians walked out of the Council chamber again while the Ethiopians remained as the vote was called. The vote was unanimous with the abstention of the Italians.

Baron Pompeo Aloisi of Italy had taken his seat at the start of the session, but when the Ethiopians were called to the table he walked from the room, trailed by the entire Italian delegation. But when the vote was over, Baron Aloisi returned, and the Ethiopians left.

The latter are invited to Council sittings only when Ethiopia is discussed, not being members of the Council. Baron Aloisi is following a policy of participating in Council discussions in the usual manner only when Ethiopia is not concerned.

Canadian Wheat Sales Increasing

Dominion's Grain Believed Swinging Back Toward Leading Place It Formerly Held in World Market

Winnipeg, Sept. 6.—Canadian wheat to-day appeared to be coming into its own again in the export markets of the world.

From every major port in the Dominion, with the exception of Vancouver, wheat shipments to-day in increasing quantities. Total export sales of Canada's major commodity yesterday aggregated 1,000,000 bushels, the same figure as Wednesday.

Churchill, Manitoba's seaport on Hudson Bay, was the focal point for the wheat business, 800,000 bushels now in store at government elevators there being sold. The balance of the foreign demand was met from eastern stocks, chiefly at Montreal.

Figures for the movement yesterday and Wednesday, Grain Exchange traders pointed out, were conservative. They expressed the belief the combined sales might go considerably over the 2,000,000-bushel mark when final foreign purchases are checked up.

UNCERTAINTY REMOVED

Traders and market students have an answer for the improved inquiry for Canadian wheat. Appointment of the Canadian Wheat Board had removed much of the uncertainty of importers regarding the Canadian carryover, they said.

Another reason, it was pointed out, was the almost total absence of

CHAMBERS AT YIOUBOU CAMP

Liberal Federal Candidate
For Nanaimo Riding
Speaks Up-Island

Yioubou, Sept. 5.—Speaking here last night before an interested audience, Alan Chambers, federal Liberal candidate for the Nanaimo riding, said: "The whole field of government in Canada to-day is in a hopeless mess. The people are sick and tired of seeing major national problems become political footballs, to be kicked about by various governing authorities. Not only are we overgoverned, but we have now reached the stage when no authority is willing to take direct responsibility for handling the grave problems that confront us."

"Under the present inept method of handling such national problems as unemployment," added Mr. Chambers, "it is not surprising that our younger citizens are beginning to lose faith in democratic institutions."

Mr. Chambers closed his speech with the warning: "If confidence is to be restored it is imperative that we rationalize our whole system of government in Canada."

A. Squibbs of Yioubou was in the chair.

He early demonstrated outstanding brilliance as a student, and during his years at the university won no fewer than four scholarships in his honor, including the Dean Galey Scholarship. He proceeded to Columbia University, New York, to continue his studies in history, and received his M.A. in 1925.

Still further honors came to him at Columbia in the shape of the coveted Taussig and French University scholarships, which enabled him to spend 1926 in Europe. In the following year he received his Ph.D. at Columbia and returned to the University of California to accept the appointment of professor in the Department of History and acting dean of undergraduates.

Early last year he returned to Europe to continue research work, traveling via Victoria and visiting all his old friends here, who will share with his family very deep sorrow at his untimely death.

Dr. O'Brien is survived by his parents and four sisters, Mrs. W. Lloyd Morgan, and the Misses Catherine, Betty and Patricia O'Brien, all in Victoria, and one brother, John, in Berkeley. Mrs. O'Brien, his mother, left yesterday for Berkeley.

Funeral services and interment will be held in Berkeley to-morrow morning.

the committee. Other members are probably to be Rt. Hon. Anthony Eden for Britain, Premier Laval for France, Foreign Minister Joseph Beck for Poland and Senor Salvador de Madariaga for Spain.

An Italian spokesman said Italy's objections to the Ethiopian activities in the League had been largely overcome by decision on the part of Ethiopia definitely to make Teclé Hawariate its official delegate.

The Italian added that Italy was especially incensed because yesterday's attack in the Council on Italy had been delivered by a non-Ethiopian, Prof. Gaston Jèze, a French lawyer (who spoke for Ethiopia).

He said that if an Ethiopian had made the same statement, it would not have had the same importance. It was indicated that Prof. Jèze probably would continue to speak at Council meetings, but always as a substitute for Hawariate, who is a native Ethiopian.

BY PEACEFUL METHODS

Dr. R. Marté-Gomez of Mexico recalled to the assembled delegations in the public session the doctrine of American nations that there shall be no recognition of international settlements which are not obtained by peaceful means and that territorial acquisitions shall be deemed invalid when they are made by force of arms.

The Mexican delegate said his nation was bound to Italy by solid ties and that it hoped the dispute would be settled in conformity with the principles of the League of Nations. He praised the efforts of Great Britain and France to settle it by conciliation.

"PUNITIVE" EXPEDITION

Associated Press
Paris, Sept. 5.—French officials today expressed confidence that the League would spread beyond Ethiopia and that the League, although it would be shaken, would emerge safely from such a war.

Responsible officials said Premier Mussolini's "punitive expedition" was "a certainty." They saw no prospect of stopping him, but hoped his "police measures" would be short and less damaging to international relations than many statesmen fear.

JÈZE'S SPEECH

They considered the strong language of Prof. Gaston Jèze in the League Council yesterday "regrettable," because, although he was talking as the representative of Ethiopia and as that nation's paid attorney, he is a Frenchman and it is necessary to explain to the Italians he was not speaking for France.

Italy's hasty exit from the League of Nations Council session yesterday aroused bitter comment. The newspaper L'Ouvrier remarked: "Italy wanted to coerce the Council into accepting her thesis of Ethiopia's inferiority. It is hard to believe she could succeed. Mr. Eden and M. Laval have little hope of reaching a compromise."

"MUSICAL CHAIRS"

London, Sept. 5.—Sources close to the government to-day said reports from Rome that Italy's walkout at the League of Nations Council session yesterday was not necessarily a prelude to its withdrawal from the League were only partly reassuring.

They continued to wonder how long Baron Pompeo Aloisi, Italian spokesman, would continue playing "musical chairs" every time an Ethiopian delegate rose to speak in the Council chamber.

However, the cabinet showed an unruffled front. The ministers found in the situation no cause to abandon their customary week-end in the country.

WEEK-END REST

Prime Minister Baldwin prepared to leave for Chequers, his official country residence thirty miles from London, where he will remain in close touch with all developments. The ministers departed even further afield.

ASSOCIATED PRESS

SURPRISE FOR ETHIOPIA
Addis Ababa, Sept. 5.—The Ethiopian Government had its third and most thorough surprise of the week when word was received of Italy's refusal to deal with the empire's representatives at the League Council meeting at Geneva.

This surprise takes its place with those occasioned by the decision of the United Nations commission and the abrogation of the oil concession by the United States corporation.

Government leaders described Italy's conduct as astounding and incomprehensible in its protest of the right of the Ethiopian delegate to address the public session of the League Council.

It was pointed out that whatever the outcome of the present session, Ethiopia is still a League member and therefore possesses the same rights as Italy.

Concerning the recent ruling of the Italo-Ethiopian conciliation commission that neither Italy nor Ethiopia was responsible for the fight at Ualul last December, the emperor stated in an official communiqué:

"The decision shows Ethiopia was not responsible, but the problem of Italo-Ethiopian relations still exists. The League, in accordance with a resolution of August 4, must re-examine and settle the entire dispute at the present session."

"Ethiopia, as a member of the League, asks the Council to define clearly the interpretation of the Italo-Ethiopian treaty and other disputed questions."

DEFENCE OF LIBERTY

In an audience Emperor Haile Selassie stated:

"Despite the pressing necessity for railroads, schools, and other civilizing influences, we must concentrate all our energies and resources to defending our liberty."

"In calling on us to direct the destinies of Ethiopia, the Great Council did us the sacred duty of ministering to the comfort, welfare and progress of our people. Although menaced by a mighty power, we will carry out this responsibility with all our hearts and energies."

TROOPS MOVING

Rome, Sept. 5.—Troops departed from three Italian cities to-day for Naples to embark for Africa, as European eyes were centred on developments at the League of Nations Council meeting in Geneva.

The troop movement was the second significant military episode in recent Italy and the War Minister having called 50,000 youths of the class of 1912, previously exempted from military service.

The cities that sent troops to the port of embarkment were Turin, Bari, and Genoa.

All three troops will sail for East Africa at the week-end.

ITALIAN DEMAND FORESHADOWED

Rome, Sept. 5 (Associated Press).—The semi-official journal Asiatica Coloniale (Colonial Action) stated to-day that Italy demands the exclusion of Great Britain from Egypt if Great Britain poses the question of Italy being a threat to the British Empire by going into Ethiopia.

"If Italy's presence in east Africa is recognized as damaging to the imperial interests of England," said Asiatica Coloniale, "the same thing must be admitted for Britain's presence on the sea and coasts in base within the Imperial Italian sphere."

"England at Alexandria, Egypt, is as dangerous as Italy in Aden. Aden, Malta and Gibraltar are a menace for our Mediterranean. Cyprus and Haifa are a danger for Rhodes."

"For our security, we can very well demand Great Britain's exclusion from Egypt."

ASSOCIATED PRESS

NO REPORT
Washington, Sept. 5.—Secretary of State Hull reported to-day the complete absence of any communications from Ethiopia concerning the granting and then cancellation of the oil-minerals concession to the Standard-Vacuum Oil Company.

He made the declaration in answer to inquiries about news dispatches from Addis Ababa in which Emperor Haile Selassie was described as protesting volubly to Cornelius H. Van Enger, United States chargé d'affaires, because of the attitude taken by the United States.

(From Canada)

Canadian Press
Regina, Sept. 5.—Three young men from Regina, one of them still in his teens, have joined the Italian air force and will sail, along with thirty other Canadians and a considerable number of United States enlistments, from New York about September 18. They are destined for service in Ethiopia.

One of the Regina youths, twenty-three-year-old John McIntyre, left a week ago and is waiting in Minneapolis for the arrival of John Francis, nineteen, at present here, but whose mother resides in Winnipeg, and of twenty-three-year-old Charles "Bud" Fry, waiting in Regina, but whose parents live in Brandon.

FARMERS' ACT REGISTRAR

Ottawa, Sept. 5 (Canadian Press).—William F. Garland, Ottawa druggist and former member of Parliament for Carleton County, has been appointed chief registrar under the Farmers' Creditors Arrangement Act. His duties will be to assist generally the provincial boards of review operating under the act and his salary will be $325 monthly as from September 1, 1935.

King Urges Clear Thinking Be Basis Of Voting Oct. 14

"Mr. Stevens may have felt very bitter against Mr. Bennett," said Mr. King. "But what wrong had his other colleagues done him, and what about the whole Conservative Party which made Mr. Stevens all that he was? There is such a thing as gratitude, but it is not for me to settle the quarrels of Conservatives."

FOUND SEAT FOR HIM

It should be remembered, said Mr. King, that in 1930 Mr. Stevens was a defeated candidate. He had no seat in Parliament. Mr. Bennett came to his assistance and asked one of the British Columbia members to give his seat to Mr. Stevens. He (Mr. King) personally had helped by asking the Liberal organization not to oppose Mr. Stevens because he believed Mr. Bennett should have the men he wanted in his cabinet. Had it not been for these things Mr. Stevens would not have been Minister of Trade and Commerce and would not even have sat in the last Parliament.

"Don't imagine a party that owes its origin to a division of that kind is going to succeed in solving the problems of Canada," said Mr. King.

CONFIDENCE NEEDED

Restoration of confidence in Canada on the part of Canadians was the great need of the present, Mr. King told his audience.

The Liberal Party was in the best position of all to provide stable government because eight of the nine provinces were under Liberal rule and because the party was united. Co-operation between Liberal and provincial governments would be easy with a Liberal government at Ottawa. The same policies would be applied in both spheres.

TARIFFS AND WAGES

Protection had been heralded as necessary to maintain wages and provide employment, but the facts proved the opposite, he said. The high protection established by the Bennett government had brought wages to the lowest level in history and caused increasing unemployment. Protection created monopoly and high profits for the owners of capital but nothing for the working men.

Capitalism was being attacked in Canada, said Mr. King, but capital was necessary even in a communistic state. But it would not be easy to get capital for Canadian industries under an unstable government and while political leaders were going about attacking all capital. Under such conditions there could be no confidence.

The Liberal Party believed in assisting Canada's basic industries by reducing tariffs on implements of production, said Mr. King. It had pursued this policy when in office and would do so again. It would reduce the cost of production for the farmer, the miner, the lumberman and the fisherman. This would enable them to produce more and to obtain wider markets.

SOCIAL CREDIT

The Social Credit system should be tested in Alberta before being tried elsewhere, said Mr. King. It would not be wise to experiment in both that province and in the Dominion as a whole at the same time. If it succeeded in Alberta it would soon make its way in the rest of the country.

"I am all for letting it have the best chance in Alberta," he said. Mr. King yesterday returned to the province which first sent him to Parliament as a party leader.

When he addressed the gathering of Prince Edward Island Liberals, Mr. King recalled that in 1919, when he became leader of the Liberal Party, he had been invited to contest the constituency of Prince Edward Island.

PREMIER LEA SPEAKS

Premier W. M. Lea of Prince Edward Island, recently elected with a 100 per cent Liberal Legislature, introduced Mr. King and was congratulated by the federal leader, who appealed for equally strong Liberal representation at Ottawa.

OFFICERS ELECTED

Winnipeg, Sept. 5 (Canadian Press).—H. E. Guilfoyle of Toronto to-day was elected president of the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants at the annual convention here. G. E. Winters, Vancouver, was elected vice-president. All members of the executive were re-elected.

LABOR MOVES AGAINST WAR

firms the unwavering allegiance of the two internationals to the cause of peace and condemns the aggressive attitude of Fascist Italy toward Ethiopia.

"In view of the present situation, the conference in the name of the millions of workers, men and women, whom it represents, makes a supreme appeal to the League of Nations to fulfil its mission to preserve peace and insure the supremacy of right over might."

URGENT DUTY

"The imminent danger of war plainly indicates the urgent duty of the League makes it imperative that the covenant—the whole covenant—now be applied, including the sanctions provided for in it."

"The two internationals, conscious of their duties toward peace, are ready to fulfil them in their entirety and confidently assure the League of the wholehearted support of the workers they represent in any measures it may take for the effective application of whatever sanctions may be necessary against an aggressor."

The International Federation of Trade Unions, as reconstituted at Amsterdam in 1919 following the Great War, is affiliated with national federations that have a membership of more than 13,000,000 workers, most important of which is the British Trades Union Congress. Before the war it conflicted somewhat with the Second (Socialist) International, but the two became distinct when the latter embraced political aims.

The following article by William Kemp, president of the sixtieth Trades Union Congress of Great Britain, is one of the symposiums on Ethiopia written for The Associated Press. The Trades Union Congress yesterday evening overwhelmingly voted a resolution supporting the League and collective action against war.

Congress Hall, Margate, Eng., Sept. 5.—With the peace of the world threatened by the ruthless and greedy dictator of Italy, Great Britain's millions of workers, I am glad to say, have shown in no uncertain manner they will back up solidly whatever means the League of Nations machinery provides to preserve peace and to prevent Mussolini from carrying out his rapacious assault on Ethiopia.

The vote taken at this Congress last night when 2,662,000 out of 3,139,000 workers recorded their "resolute faith in the collective peace system operating within the League of Nations and a determination to take all appropriate action to make that system a reality," means we British workers will go to any lengths to prevent the outbreak of another world conflagration.

Some people—even some of our own members—say we are pandering to a "war" policy of this country's capitalist government. Others assert the way to prevent war is not through the League but by helping the Italian proletariat to throw out its brutal taskmaster.

REMOVE FEAR OF MIGHT

I sympathize with the feelings of these people. Don't they realize, however, that if the British workers openly declare they won't support the League's efforts to whip Mussolini into quietude—and by that I mean the employment of sanctions and force if necessary—they remove the fear of Great Britain's might from Mussolini's mind and assure the triumph of his flagrant aggression?

We workers will not be a party to turning the world into a shambles again just because it is an Italian's whim to covet certain Ethiopian territory. Naturally we, along with the League, must face the risk of Italy's declaring war on us. We try to be realistic in our designs. There are ways and means, however, particularly in financial and economic sanctions and in the closing of the Suez Canal to her, thus insuring that she will not declare war, because if they are applied she will not have the wherewithal to do so.

If the laws of the nations have no meaning for Italy the League's duty is to use blunt coercion to impress them on her mind.

COAL AND OIL

London, Sept. 5.—Sir William Allen Jowitt, former Attorney-General, in a speech before Welsh workers at Cardiff yesterday evening, said sanctions could be applied against Italy to prevent an attack on Ethiopia, without provoking a European war.

"It is fallacious to say sanctions involve war," he said. "We depend entirely on the nature of the sanctions employed. If, in common with other nations, we were to employ sanctions in regard to coal or oil we should make the outbreak, or at any rate the continuance of hostilities impossible."

ATTITUDE OF LABOR M.P.'S

Canadian Press from Hatas
Margate, Eng., Sept. 5.—The Labor group in Parliament wants Ethiopia protected from Italian aggression, but is reluctant to recommend such vigorous action as was favored by the British Trades Union Congress in its resolution passed here yesterday. Mr. Hon. George Lansbury, Labor opposition leader in Parliament, said to-day.

Addressing the congress, he said: "We believe the time has come when the Abyssinian question should be settled, and there should be an economic conference."

"The one means to peace is economic justice through co-operation among nations. Nations should come together, and instead of fighting for abundance they should find means of sharing that abundance."

CONSCRIPTION AT DANZIG

Danzig, Sept. 5 (Associated Press).—A note in the newspaper Danziger Neueste Nachrichten to-day indicated conscription had been introduced in the Free City, although the conscript army, called the auxiliary service, is described as non-military.

CLOSE LIBRARIES

The board ordered the children's branches of the two city libraries to close down immediately, and authorized the publication of newspaper advertisements to advise parents not to allow their children to gather with others in groups larger than four or five.

No action will be taken in regard to the ban on schools and children attending public places until the board meets again next Wednesday evening.

Two new cases were reported yesterday afternoon, bringing the official city total to seventeen.

FLORIDA FEARS PESTILENCE

"The only thing to do is to burn those bodies down there" was the opinion to-day of Dr. T. S. Kennedy, district sanitary officer of the Florida state board of health.

Dr. Kennedy said he had wired the president of the board to seek permission at Washington for cremation of the victims.

REGRET NEED TO ACT

Earlier Governor Sholtz had said: "If the state board of health reports it necessary, we must have quick disposal of these bodies—and if necessary they must be burned, however much we regret to take this action."

The question of whether the victims had needlessly died—whether they might have been safely evacuated if warned sooner of the coming hurricane—emmeshed officials in a welter of arguments.

Independent investigations were pressed.

Florida State Attorney G. A. Worley began an inquiry into alleged delay of a train sent into the keys Monday night to evacuate the victims.

What he described as "a relentless investigation" was initiated by Aubrey Williams, assistant to Federal Relief Administrator Harry Hopkins, who charged the weather bureau had been remiss in not forecasting the hurricane soon enough.

TANKER IN GALE
Off Cape Henry 120 miles, the oil tanker Neptune lay hove to in a fifty-five-mile gale, unable to proceed on its southern course. The gale was driving heavy rains before it, the tanker messaged, and the sea was heavy.

Three deaths—one in Virginia, the other two in North Carolina—were counted as heavy winds, small tornadoes and rain plagued the Carolinas, Virginia and Maryland.

PROPERTY LOSSES

Property damage was heavy as the "twister" picked roofs off buildings. Flood waters marooned at least three towns on the eastern shore of Maryland. As abruptly as it struck, the storm veered away from the coast to-day.

Near Harrington, Del., swirling flood waters washed out Pennsylvania Railroad tracks, and two trainmen were killed and a third was missing when a freight train plunged into the submerged hole. Crews searched the waters for the body of the head brakeman.

DEATH TOLL

A count of the hurricane victims at the general morgue and funeral homes in Miami totaled 132. Of these more than 100 bodies remained unidentified.

The Red Cross made these estimates:

Three hundred and twenty persons missing in Florida.

One hundred and forty-four bodies recovered.

Three hundred and seventy-five of 517 veterans known to be alive.

Two hundred and fifty-six dead.

aboard until ordered by his owners to leave.

With him were Second Mate Dennis Floods, Chief Steward A. J. Tuck and several able-bodied seamen.

DOUBTS VOICED

Officials of the Morgan Line said they were encouraged over the possibility of refloating the Dixie within a short time. Some shipping men expressed doubt.

Disinterested marine authorities set at $600,000 the damage to the 8,100-ton liner.

In the deceptive calm which concealed the swell rolling endlessly along her sides, the salvage tug Warrior went about its prosaic business of taking soundings on the reef preparatory to attempting to refloat the Dixie.

Coastguard cutters watched protectively close by, vigilant lest some unexpected shifting of the liner should make their aid necessary.

En route to New York, Sept. 6.—Quickly forgetting the dangers they faced while aboard the grounded liner Dixie in a hurricane-churned sea off a Florida coast island, passengers and crew traveled cheerfully homeward by train to-day.

Refreshed after a night of rest following many hours of anxiety as rescue craft worked valiantly to remove them from the steamship on the reef, everyone aboard the

Social Credit In Federal Field

Saskatoon, Sept. 6.—Plans for establishment of a Social Credit organization in Manitoba are being considered, according to Col. H. W. Arnold, Saskatoon commission agent, who yesterday announced it was intended to place a candidate in each Saskatchewan seat for the Dominion election, October 14.

The announcement revealed that Social Credit nominees might contest every prairie constituency. Premier Aberhart of Alberta having stated previously that candidates would run in all seventeen constituencies in that province.

Back in the city after a long conference with Premier Aberhart Wednesday evening, Colonel Arnold announced he had been named Social Credit organizer for Saskatchewan, his duties to start immediately.

INFANTILE PARALYSIS

Roseland, B.C., Sept. 6 (Canadian Press).—Public gatherings for children were banned again yesterday in Roseland following development of a case of infantile paralysis. The patient is a twelve-year-old girl. Roseland had observed a ban on gatherings with Trail, where cases developed over a week ago, but the ban was lifted last Sunday.

Cheaper Gasoline On U.S. Pacific Coast

Seattle, Sept. 6.—Standard Oil of California and the Union Oil Company today put into effect a two-cent-a-gallon price reduction on gasoline.

The cut brings ethyl gasoline to twenty-one cents a gallon, standard grades to nineteen cents and third grade gasoline to seventeen. The price cut was effective in Washington, Oregon, Nevada, Alaska, Hawaii and the parts of California and Arizona where cuts had not already been made.

ASK $40,000 FOR SPECIAL POLICE

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—At the conclusion of yesterday's meeting of the Vancouver police commission Mayor G. O. McGeer stated the British Columbia Government would be asked by civic authorities to return approximately $40,000 expended for special policing during recent relief camp and waterfront troubles.

Judge J. N. Ellis, police commissioner, and Aldermen C. E. Tisdall and H. J. de Grauw will go to Victoria at a date to be announced later to present the city's demands to Attorney-General Gordon Sloan.

MOVE TO END LOTTERIES

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Complete extermination of Chinese lotteries, gambling houses and bootleggers and the stamping out of the "most objectionable features" of prostitution, were recommended in a report laid before the Vancouver police commission yesterday by Chief of Police W. W. Foster, Magistrate H. S. Wood and Prosecutor Oscar Orr.

An amendment of present regulations governing appeals from Liquor Act convictions will also be urged by the commissioners. This would change the present method of hearing appeals before a county court judge with witnesses, to the British Columbia Court of Appeal, where witnesses are not required to appear. The reason given was that by the time an appeal is heard special operatives employed by police in securing convictions are often missing.

EXCHANGE MERGER

Seattle, Sept. 6 (Associated Press).—Members of the Seattle Mining Exchange approved the proposal for a merger with the Seattle Stock Exchange yesterday. The action must be approved by the Stock Exchange membership before the consolidation can be effected.

New Deal Moves To Completion

President Roosevelt Says Conditions in U.S. Offer Widespread Recovery

Associated Press
Hyde Park, N.Y., Sept. 6.—President Roosevelt today declared the New Deal's "basic programme" had reached "substantial completion" and a "breathing spell" for industry "is here—very decidedly so."

He asserted further "that at this moment conditions are such as to offer substantial and widespread recovery."

The President gave his views in a letter to Roy W. Howard, publisher of the Scripps-Howard newspapers, who reported fears of business men and asserted, "There is need to undo the damage done by misinterpretations of the New Deal."

In perhaps his most complete exposition of his administration and his ideas for the future, the President said he claimed no "magician's wand," but "we do claim we have helped to restore that public confidence which now offers so substantial a foundation for our recovery."

BASIC CONFIDENCE

"I take it," he wrote, "we are all not merely seeking but getting the recovery of confidence, not merely the confidence of a small group, but that basic confidence on the part of the mass of our population in the soundness of our economic life and in the honesty and justice of the purposes of its economic rules and methods."

"It is a source of great satisfaction that at this moment conditions are such as to offer further substantial and widespread recovery."

"Unemployment is still with us, but it is steadily diminishing and our efforts to meet its problems are unflagging."

RETAINS POWER

Washington, Sept. 6.—(Associated Press).—Although President Roosevelt has declared the peak of the national emergency is past, few officials in the capital believe he is prepared to surrender in the near future the extraordinary emergency powers given him by Congress.

Agricultural Adjustment Administration spokesmen, for instance, said today there was no thought of the President abandoning his efforts to adjust farm prices.

APPLE LOSSES IN NOVA SCOTIA

Canadian Press
Kentville, N.S., Sept. 6.—A gale that howled through Nova Scotia yesterday swept between 50,000 and 75,000 barrels of apples from their trees in the rich Annapolis Valley, it is estimated. Accompanied by heavy rain, the storm hit the province early yesterday morning, and by evening had passed out to sea again, causing little damage except to orchards.

Gales are all the growers fear just now. "With their fruit nearly ripe, they are harvesting a crop of 2,000,000 barrels expected to bring an approximate price of $2.50 each."

"That price," one owner stated, "will pay off my mortgage and give me a clean start next year—if the wind doesn't blow it all away."

Minister's Speech Causes Discussion

Associated Press
London, Sept. 6.—Reliable sources said today Dr. W. C. Martin, the Ethiopian minister, had been summoned to the Foreign Office as a result of a speech Tuesday before the Nile Society in which he asserted: "Mussolini seems to think the best way to civilize is to kill us off."

While it was understood the British government had entered no protest, it was learned Dr. Martin was told some of his remarks were undiplomatic or, at least, unwise at the present juncture on the part of a representative of the court of St. James. His visit to the Foreign Office took place yesterday evening.

Frankfort, Ky., Sept. 6 (Associated Press).—On the eve of Kentucky's Democratic gubernatorial primary election, Governor Ruby Laffoon ordered National Guard troops today to proceed to Harlan County immediately. The reason, he said, was that the lives, constitutional rights and property of Harlan County citizens might be properly safeguarded and protected.

NO ABERHART TOUR

Edmonton, Sept. 6 (Canadian Press).—Premier Aberhart will not speak in outside provinces during the federal election campaign. Commenting on Saskatchewan dispatches which quoted Lieut.-Col. H. W. Arnold as saying Aberhart would stump Saskatchewan in aid of a new Social Credit Party there, Mr. Aberhart said: "I will not be in a position to take part in the Saskatchewan organization work."

It was possible other leaders of the Alberta Social Credit League would go to Saskatchewan, he said.

Soon to Rule On Market Act

Mr. Justice Robertson Hears Lulu Island Chinese Request For Injunction

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Mr. Justice H. B. Robertson yesterday afternoon reserved judgment on the application of J. P. Hogg, who sought, on behalf of Mah Bing, an intercountry injunction restraining the British Columbia vegetable marketing board from interfering with the Chinese in the marketing of their potatoes.

The judge asked Mr. Hogg to furnish information on the quantity of potatoes held by the Lulu Island Chinese and affected by the marketing board.

The case attacks the validity of the Dominion and provincial natural products marketing acts, under which boards were set up to control the marketing of various products.

Mah Bing was stopped on the Marpole Bridge August 12, when he allegedly attempted to run a truck load of new potatoes to Vancouver. He expected a crop of 180 tons from his 100 acres of potatoes on Lulu Island, and claimed that if the potatoes were not marketed within two weeks of maturity they would likely rot.

Says New Trade Pacts Needed

Premier of Ontario Tells Prairie Voters Liberals Will Extend Canada's Field

Canadian Press

Swift Current, Sask., Sept. 6.—A radical change in federal policy was necessary to the economic salvation of Canada, Premier Mitchell F. Hepburn of Ontario said here yesterday evening in an address in the support of C. E. Bothwell, Liberal candidate, seeking re-election to the Commons.

Condemning the Bennett government's policy of refusal to trade fairly with other countries and its practice of allowing control by the "unseen hand of government," the privileged interests," Mr. Hepburn asked the producers to support the Liberal Party, pledged to remove government from trade in the few years of its government, to such influence and domination, to restore Canada's prosperity by the inauguration of a policy under which trade would flow naturally between the Dominion and other countries, and to do away with exploitation of the masses of the people in the interest of the few by adoption of measures to break up great concentration of wealth.

Substitution of reciprocal pacts in place of tariff barriers was necessary to the welfare of Canada, he contended. Reversal of the fiscal policy was the one cure for the country's plight.

Mr. Hepburn said he had no faith in the possibility of the Aberhart Social Credit scheme, which he deemed economically unsound. The Stevens policy was also unsound, he said, and he did not consider Mr. Stevens as sincere in view of his record of always voting for debt increase.

EXECUTION IN TEXAS

Huntsville, Tex., Sept. 6 (Associated Press).—W. D. May, thirty-nine, gaunt grey-haired farmer, was electrocuted here today for his part in a triple slaying near Fort Worth in 1933. Just before the last he prayed: "Our Father, forgive them, for they know not what they do. I ask thee to forgive witnesses and all for putting me to death for sins I did not commit."

EDUCATION TO BE REDIRECTED

Minds Stunted and Prey to Dictators Under Present System, Says Scientist

Canadian Press
Norwich, Eng., Sept. 6.—The aims of the present educational system need to be redirected "if we are not unconsciously to bring up a race which, with its mind stunted, its capacity for freedom undeveloped, will be easy prey for the politician, the journalist and the dictator," the British Association for the Advancement of Science was told today.

In a paper discussing the relationship between education and freedom, A. W. Pickard-Cambridge, president of the educational science section, called attention to the advancing threat of dictatorship and regimentation of peoples. Italy, Germany and Russia were examples.

"If a free democracy is to continue," he said, "we must educate for it, for in many respects our present educational system is better calculated to produce a servile and passive mentality than to elicit an activity of mind and an independence worthy of free men and women."

"We have reached a point when the forces which make for the enslavement or the inertness of mind and spirit are active as they have not been for centuries."

MAN ON PLAINS TURNING TO STONE

Canadian Press
Edmonton, Sept. 6.—A man in Edmonton is turning to stone. A mysterious ailment is creeping through his body, making every muscle as hard as granite.

Thomas McDonnell is fifty-six years old. He was stricken when he was seven and now for nearly half a century he has helplessly witnessed his body becoming ossified. It began with a slight pain in his back, spread slowly to his knees and ankles, took possession of his arms and neck and ravaged him till now he is forced to remain rigidly in one position.

He arrived in Edmonton Tuesday from Hamilton, Ont., handled by porters and ambulance drivers as if he was a piece of rare porcelain. He is living with relatives.

SIXTY TO TRAIN FOR TEACHING

Canadian Press
Vancouver, Sept. 6.—A full quota of sixty students has been admitted to the teacher training course for the fall session at the University of British Columbia by the joint faculty committee. There were seventy applications received for the course and the remaining ten were placed on a waiting list until vacancies occur.

Dean Daniel Buchanan of the faculty of arts and science advises all students registering in the university for the first time to confer with him in regard to their courses and to register as soon as possible even though registrations will be accepted until September 18. He also announces students must bring a copy of their last examination results.

GETTING THE FACTS

ON THE FIRST OF OCTOBER THE PROVINCIAL government will endeavor, by a systematic census of those on relief in British Columbia, to find out what the unemployment problem really amounts to. Our information on this point all over Canada at present is somewhat hazy. We have more than a million Canadians on the dole and we loosely class them as the unemployed, with the apparent assumption that they could all be taken off the dole if industry got back to normal. Actually, the British Columbia government's census is expected to indicate that a large proportion of them will never be absorbed by industry, will be a permanent charge on the community at large and can not be considered as unemployed at all.

Hon. G. S. Pearson, Minister of Labor, says he does not know, and can not know until he has completed his new survey, how many men and women British Columbia must find work for to solve the unemployment problem. He believes, however, that the number is far smaller than is generally supposed. Of the total relief list of around 80,000, the majority are either dependents who will go off relief when the heads of their families find work, or people who, for one reason or another, can not work.

It is proposed to segregate these two classes. The unemployables will be moved out of the unemployment administration into the social service administration, where they properly belong. Then it will be seen that no vast improvement in business would be needed to put the employables to work.

This is an encouraging aspect of unemployment, but, on the other hand, the position of great numbers of unemployables create a serious problem for all Canadian governments. During the depression, almost invisibly, social welfare has advanced rapidly. The state is now caring for thousands of people who, before the dole was inaugurated, existed for the most part on private charity. These people will remain with us long after the depression, long after the employables have gone back to work. Mr. Pearson is taking the first step in meeting this difficulty by getting the facts, finding out just what the problem amounts to.

ANOTHER INSOLUBLE

FOR HUNDREDS OF YEARS MEN HAVE been trying to trisect an angle, as they perform other feats of geometry, with a use of compass and ruler. The early Greek thinkers were helpless before this apparently simple job and Euclid himself, who could make a compass and a ruler do almost anything but talk, was stumped by it. But the other day Ted Macknik, twenty-one-year-old Pennsylvanian student, announced that he had solved the problem. There was joy and excitement in the hearts of mathematicians the world over as if Mr. Macknik had found a way to end the depression.

Alas, from Sioux Falls, S.D., comes the distressing news that the problem is not solved after all. Dr. G. W. Fuller, head of the mathematics department at Sioux Falls College, says Mr. Macknik's method of trisecting an angle is not correct. The angle remains untrisected, unconquerable, baffling, like Mount Everest.

WORKING IN THE DARK

THE CONTROL OF AGRICULTURAL marketing, part of the hard, thankless task of rationalizing our economy, seems to be running into the difficulties that had been anticipated for it.

In the great Fraser Valley dairy industry the producers are split over the proposal to establish a single agency to supervise Vancouver's milk supply. The provincial government is strongly favorable to this scheme and can not see why the federal government, which has approved the same machinery in other lines of agriculture, should refuse to allow it in the milk industry. At the moment, Victoria and Ottawa are arguing over the question by telegram.

More serious is the news from the Okanagan where a bona-fide firm was refused the right to ship fruit. The policy of the Tree Fruit Board in refusing to let this firm do business tends, as Hon. K. C. MacDonald, Minister of Agriculture, has rightly said, towards the creation of an iron-clad monopoly of the firms already licensed. Dr. MacDonald unfortunately has no control over the board which, under this complicated and well-nigh unintelligible patchwork of legislation, is acting at the moment in its federal capacity as a creature of the Dominion and a servant of the federal marketing board.

This is probably the most dangerous possibility of the federal marketing act—that it will result in the creation of monopolies to the detriment of producer and consumer alike. Dr. MacDonald says that such a tendency will certainly bring a fatal revulsion against the whole experiment. Undoubtedly he is right about that. The Okanagan case seems to indicate that Mr. Mackenzie King was on sound ground when he objected to giving a board the life and death power over legitimate business enterprises, instead of leaving those final powers in the hands of the government.

Meanwhile, the validity of both federal and provincial marketing laws is under fire in the courts. The provincial government says the relative powers of the Dominion and the provinces in these matters should be settled finally by amendments to the British North America Act. If these relative powers are not fixed in this and in many other spheres, particularly in the sphere of taxation and finance, Confederation will have to continue staggering along blind, hoping for the best but never knowing when the Privy Council may throw its laws overboard.

THE AUTUMN PICTURE

THE APPROACH OF AN ELECTION seems to have a marvelously mellowing effect upon a government. Just look, for example, at the affecting reconciliation between Mr. Aberhart and Mr. Bennett, which surely would never have occurred if this were not an election year.

Here is Mr. Aberhart in Edmonton challenging the constitution of Canada and the economic system, proposing to finance his province on Social Credit and pay out basic dividends of some $120,000,000 a year. There is Mr. Bennett in Ottawa who has stood for unbroken, uncompromising, orthodox finance, who, little more than a year ago, told British Columbia truculently that it must balance its budget and stop its nonsense or it would not get any federal loans at all.

And yet in this mellow autumn season, warmed by that universal human glow of an approaching poll, and perhaps not forgetting his own seat of Calgary, the same Mr. Bennett assures Mr. Aberhart on the long-distance telephone that he will co-operate with him to the full, that federal money will be forthcoming and everything will be fine. It is an affecting picture in rich, autumnal hues.

But, of course, it will be understood that Premier Bennett is not interested in autumn "tints"—naturally, his outlook, politically, is not rosy.

POLITICIANS AND THE PRESS

THE POLITICAL INNOCENCE OF THE Aberhart government of Alberta is almost as refreshing as its breezy economics. Its latest proposal is to establish a press bureau which will feed the newspapers just what news the government thinks the public ought to have. The political correspondents, it seems, are to stand at the back door of the Parliament Buildings in Edmonton and accept hand-outs in the old fashion of the open road.

There is no need, however, for alarm. There is no need to fear that the newspapers of Alberta will be throttled and their liberty of reporting and comment suppressed. The newspapers will print the hand-outs, if they have any news value, in the ordinary course of reporting all sides of public issues, whatever their own views. But the correspondents will get the real facts and publish them, whether they agree with the hand-outs or not.

Every government which has tried to feed the press at the back door has found that out, to its sorrow. However well the secrets are guarded, however officials are gagged and cabinet ministers sworn to secrecy, we are not afraid to predict that little will happen inside the Aberhart government on Monday without the newspapers knowing about it and printing it before Saturday at latest. The public will get all the news about the Aberhart government whether the Aberhart government likes it or not.

At a time when a provincial government is attempting a wholesale economic revolution in defiance of the constitution and the existing financial system of the country at large, it is highly necessary that all its acts should be known promptly to the people. We fancy that some highly-interesting news will be coming out of Edmonton during the next few months and the most interesting probably will not be in the back-door hand-outs.

When you undertake to set the government at work in a new field, passing the necessary legislation is only half the job. The other half, equally important, is to put the work in the hands of men whose ability, sincerity and energy command nation-wide respect.

The international poker game will probably go on, and on until at last one or another of the players decides to call somebody's bluff. It is hard to avoid the feeling that everybody concerned has been doing a tremendous amount of bluffing of late. So far, few important bluffs have been called. The interesting question is what will happen when someone shoves a stack of blue chips out to the middle of the table and demands a look at the hands.

QUIET RAIN

I like a steady, straight rain
 That comes without bluster and blow
 As a friend of the fruit and the grain.
 'Tis like some men I know
 Who do good in a soft, quiet way,
 Boasting never the gift or the deed.
 Coming in, with but little to say
 To serve only the need.

Some rains hammer hard at the grain,
 Breaking down what they come to restore,
 As if fields, which in summer complain,
 Should be scolded and punished before
 They are helped, and the thirst and the heat
 Were the fault of the thirsty and sore.
 And they'd so much advice to repeat
 Which they wanted the needy to hear.

But a straight steady rain without wind
 Comes gently to sweeten the land.
 It says nothing to those who have sinned,
 Which already they don't understand.
 It refreshes the weary and spent
 Green things that are striving to grow,
 And with filling a need is content.
 Like some quiet men that I know.

WHAT OTHER PAPERS SAY

WAR TIME

In Texas, Tex., in 1912, Charles Settle's Leghorn hen laid torpedo-shaped eggs that tapered at both ends. On the basis of that hint he went on record as predicting a world war in two years. Last week one of Settle's Minorca hens laid torpedo-shaped eggs. Said Farmer Settle: "If another war doesn't break out within two years then my hen doesn't know her business."

A NATIONAL THEATRE

The Winnipeg Tribune

Lord Beesborough in closing the Dominion Drama Festival at Ottawa said he hoped the time was not far distant when Canada would have a national theatre. During his term as Governor-General rapid and consistent progress toward that goal has been made. This has been due in no small part to the sustained interest and help His Excellency has given the movement.

In addition to the discovery and development of acting talent, the movement has also encouraged Canadian playwrights, and it is much easier now to envision a distinctive Canadian type of drama than it was five years ago.

THEY STOWED AWAY ABOARD SHIP IN LUXURY

Stewards, impressed by the smart appearance and dignified bearing of two young women passengers in an expensive first-class cabin aboard the Havana-bound liner Orient, out of New York, hastened to obey their every wish. But the voyage had not been long under way before the occupants of the cabin were revealed as stowaways—Sylvia Frichman (left), seventeen, and Marian Kahl, eighteen, with no luggage, little money and a desire for travel. Detained and sent back on the next ship, they are pictured above as they appeared on their return to New York after a round trip that cost 75 cents.

Honors To-day Given at Ottawa

Canadian Press
 Ottawa, Sept. 6.—In stately Rideau Hall the Governor-General, the Earl of Beesborough, held an investiture to-day for those named in the King's Jubilee birthday honors list.

In a colorful ceremony five were invested with high honors and many others with recognition for contributions to varied fields of activity in the Dominion.

Heading the list was Sir William Thomas White of Toronto, invested with the Grand Cross of the Order of St. Michael and St. George. Major-General E. C. Ashton, chief of the military general staff at Ottawa and formerly of Victoria, B.C., was made a Companion of the Order of the Bath.

The honor of officer of the Order of the British Empire, civil division, was formally conferred on three from the prairie provinces, Miss M. E. Birles, Alexander, Man.; Mrs. M. J. B. Campbell, Winnipeg; and Miss M. Pinkham, Calgary.

D. J. Scott, Winnipeg, was received as a Companion of the Imperial Service Order, and Mrs. H. Osborne, Dawson City, Y.T., as member of the Order of the British Empire, civil division.

Dr. A. R. Dace, the country doctor who brought the five famous Dionne sisters into the world, received the Order of the British Empire.

POLICE FIND CASES TRIED

Canadian Press
 Vancouver, Sept. 6.—British Columbia police officers reported, to the city police station yesterday to take charge of three prisoners, but found city authorities had obligingly relieved them of responsibility and had disposed of the cases against the men, releasing them on suspended sentences.

The three were arrested by police officers on the march.

Mrs. T. P. Cessford Of Seattle Dies

Mrs. Antonia Julia Christiana Cessford, wife of Thos. P. Cessford, of Seattle, passed away yesterday at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John C. Droob, Shawinigan Lake.

Mrs. Cessford was born in Denmark and lived in Victoria for many years. She is survived by her widower and one son, Warren Thomas, in Seattle; her parents at Shawinigan Lake; one brother, Oscar Droob, Duncan, and two sisters, Mrs. C. J. Carlson and Mrs. E. Ervin, Seattle.

Funeral arrangements will be announced later.

NARCOTIC CHARGES

Seattle, Sept. 6 (Associated press).—Patrolman E. P. Marks, dismissed from the police force by Chief W. B. Kirtley yesterday evening, was held in jail for the federal narcotics agents after Chief Kirtley said he had been identified by Mrs. Myrtle McDonald, forty-six, as having sold her narcotics and having harbored Jack Strand, accused narcotic peddler, in his house for several months. Strand and the woman also were jailed.

Twenty-five Years Ago To-day

SEPTEMBER 6, 1910
 (From The Times Files)

The option taken by the Grand Trunk Pacific Railway Company on the site for their big new hotel to be built on Government Street opposite the Parliament Buildings, has been taken up, and one more block added in order to round out the site. The price to be paid for the whole will be $201,000, for which the company will get considerably over two acres of land facing Government Street, and running all the way from Belleville Street to Elliott Street.

An announcement in regard to the plans of the Canadian Northern Railway on Vancouver Island is expected almost immediately, probably tomorrow. William MacKenzie, who arrived on Saturday, made an automobile trip to Comox without meeting with Premier McBride, and was expected to have returned last night.

To-day a telegraphic message was received by him from Union Bay stating that owing to a bridge being down he would be unable to reach this city until to-night, and that he would see the Premier in the morning.

The city electric light committee will take up with the B.C. Electric Company the question of the latter concern paying part of the cost of the cluster light poles on Douglas, Fort and Yates Streets, so that a combination pole which would carry the lights as well as the trolley wires may be installed.

The city engineer has condemned the wood block pavements on Bastion and Langley Streets, which have for a long period been in a shocking state of disrepair and, if the owners will put in the necessary petition the work of laying new blocks will be undertaken.

Before an attendance of over 1,000 people at the Royal Athletic Park yesterday afternoon, the Victoria representative lacrosse club administered a decisive defeat to the New Westminster amateur lacrosse team and registered the Capitals' fourth win for the season in the British Columbia amateur lacrosse league.

WEEKLY LOG OUTPUT UP

Figures Show Gain, But Totals Still Below Spring Amounts in B.C.

While world markets continue in an uncertain state and threaten to create new difficulties for the British Columbia lumber industry, loggers are increasing their output of logs, according to figures released to-day. Hopeful that conditions in foreign markets would show improvement in the autumn, the industry put 37,165,000 board feet of logs into the water in the last week, an increase of about 1,000,000 feet per day over the output of the previous week.

The current log scale is the largest since many of the larger camps closed down early in the summer. But it is still far below the average figure for the spring months. Some of the largest camps remain closed owing to the drop in timber exports to foreign countries during the last few months. Their reopening will depend on market conditions generally and this, in turn, will have an important bearing on the unemployment situation during the autumn and winter.

SUFFER FROM TARIFFS
In the retaliation of other nations against Canada's present tariff policies the timber industry of British Columbia, the largest source of employment in this province, already has suffered heavily and may suffer more. Just as Japan, third largest customer of this province, embargoed timber products from here, and Russian lumber prices were being cut in Britain to non-competitive levels, United States lumbermen announced that they expected to re-enter the Australian market, under a new treaty between their country and Australia. Any business which the United States acquires in Australia will be taken at the expense of British Columbia which at present controls virtually the entire timber movement from the Pacific Coast to the southern dominion. Significantly the announcement of United States timber interests that they hoped to enter the Australian market again followed publication by the United States Department of Commerce of a special pamphlet urging the timber industry to increase its foreign exports and advocating trade treaties.

FINDS COPY OF EARLY TIMES

Vol. 1, No. 3 of Newspaper Reveals Life in Victoria at End of 1883

A well-preserved copy of the third issue of The Victoria Times, dated Tuesday, January 1, 1884, has been received in Victoria by H. B. Sargison. He received the copy from his uncle, Ed Sargison, who published the first issue of The Times. He was one of the pioneer printers on the coast and is still living, now a resident of Seattle. While going through some of his old documents in Seattle the other day, he came across Vol. 1, No. 3 of The Victoria Times.

The paper was six pages, but the pages were three by five inches, that is less than the size of the average popular book of to-day.

Prominent among the advertisements of the issue were those of the late R. T. Williams, "paper ruler and binder," M. W. Watt and Company, booksellers and stationers; Jno. Hawkins, dealer in groceries, provisions and general farm produce, Fort Street, below Douglas.

Among the local news items in the paper was this, headed "Electric Light."

"Last evening for the first time the city was lit up with the gaslight's strongest opponent—the electric light."

"The three masts were completed yesterday morning, and at 9 o'clock last evening the lamps at the head of the masts were aglow with the light, which cast such a brilliant light on the city that the smallest objects on the streets were rendered as distinct as in the sunshine. Owing to the moon being at its fullest power, the light did not do such service as would be necessary, consequently it was turned off, and at 1 o'clock this morning from the lofty towers shone the rich white light, which hereafter, will, or should be the policeman's friend."

Much of the space in the issue is devoted to a temperance campaign then under way to induce Victorians to consume less liquor as "all crimes on the earth do not destroy so many of the human race, nor alienate so much property as drunkenness."

One of the news reports of a conference of the W.C.T.U. the Good Templars and the Blue Ribbon Club with the mayor and aldermen at the city hall, quoted Councillor Gribble saying that the speaker in the delegation "seemed from the tone of his discourse to consider the council as a set of drunkards. He would challenge anyone to prove he had ever been seen the worse for liquor during his twenty-five years residence here."

The society column chronicles the anniversary celebration of the Methodist Sabbath School in the church on Pandora Avenue. The programme then presented was said to be "very interesting and successful" and was marked only by a recitation of a female member of the school, which was most suitable for the theatre or such places, than in a church on such an occasion.

A sports item on page two said that "Jack Frost made his re-appearance, much to the satisfaction of skaters, and seems to have a firm hold on the atmosphere for a while. Yesterday excellent skating was, and is, abundant, and easily reached, on the several ponds in the vicinity of the city. The principal rink is Steilly's pond, not distant more than 500 yards from our office, and, as we go to press we hear the clatter of the ice skaters' blades on the cold surface." On page five there was this addendum: "Since the second page has been worked off, a great change has taken place. Instead of the anticipated New Year's Day of skating, we are compelled to give it up on account of the change of atmosphere. Since 6 o'clock this morning, it has been raining most incessantly, and although the ice was covered with water, a few availed themselves of 'taking it while they could' under difficulties."

Foreign news included an item from London forecasting the probable elevation of Tennison to the peerage. From New Westminster there was a "Special to The Times" dispatch reporting no clues had been discovered yet in connection with the murders at Maple Ridge and Harrison Road. Another dispatch tells of the "Great Fire" which started in the rear of George Meade's barber shop and "quickly spread to Mr. Ray's store, which was totally consumed. It next destroyed the barber shop and the Colonial Hotel. It was checked by Dean's brick building. On the other side of the street, the saloon owned by Richard Anderson was also consumed."

A later special dispatch from New Westminster added that "the town appears very dull without the Colonial Hotel. It is understood that the proprietors intend building as soon as possible."

There was also a dispatch from the Mainland telling how the Christmas season there passed off very quietly as "there were no fights and very little noise."

As for the 1883 Christmas week in Victoria, The Times records that it also "passed off quietly in the city. There being no fires or disturbances such as would tend to violate the law."

It is expected that this copy of the newspaper will eventually be preserved in the Provincial Archives.

MORE REVENUE FROM TAX SALE

Saanich Receipts Show Increase of $2,100 This Year

An increase of $2,107 in receipts from this year's tax sale over those from last year, was reported to the Saanich Council yesterday evening.

While the number of parcels sold was less this year the lots sold were of greater value. Incidentally the report indicated an increase in payment of tax arrears in view of the fact there was a sharp decline in the number of lots in the sale.

Out of a total of 350 parcels, valued at $18,250, forty-one were sold, netting $5,395. Last year there were 370 lots in the sale valued at $23,449, of which sixty-two were sold for $3,847.12.

Will Give Concerts To Relief Camp Men

Arrangements were made yesterday evening, at the regular meeting of the Kinsmen Club in the Empress Hotel to provide for concerts for the Otter Point Relief Camp workers during the autumn and winter seasons.

During the meeting a report was received from Cecil Luckhart, delegate to the national convention at Ottawa last month, on the sessions held there.

Robert Shanks, chairman, announced the next meeting would be held on September 19.

CITY SELLS MORE LAND

Sale of reversioned property in Victoria during the first eight months of this year netted the city $16,104. It was announced yesterday by Alderman R. G. Dewar.

The figure was $1,396 above the figure for the same period last year, when the total was $14,708.

While the actual sales prices showed only a moderate gain, the volume of sales soared to a point approximately 500 per cent above those of the corresponding period last year.

Twenty-one sales were made in 1935, up to the end of August, against six last year. On the land sold this year, seven homes have been built and several more are considered.

By their development they will yield more to the city in taxes.

It has fallen to a foreign country, Turkey, to be first to appreciate one of America's greatest women, by issuing a stamp in her honor. She is Carrie Chapman Catt, great suffragist leader and now, at the age of seventy-six, still active in the cause of world peace. The stamp is one of a remarkable series issued by Turkey in connection with the twelfth congress of the International Alliance for Women Suffrage and Equal Citizenship, held at Istanbul in April, 1935. Here is one of the seven portraits of internationally famous women on this series.

Mrs. Catt, born January 9, 1859, made her first public appearance for the cause of woman suffrage in 1890. From then on, her efforts were unremitting, until women got the vote in 1920. But she didn't stop then. She had been organizing women's suffrage societies in other parts of the world and herself led the International Woman Suffrage Alliance from 1904 to 1923.

Now, still champion of all causes for women's betterment, she devotes her best time to world peace.

Masonic Group Visitors Here

Members of Scottish Rite Guests For Day in City; Enjoy Drives

Here on a day visit following their convention which concluded in Vancouver the day before, members of the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite enjoyed a trip to the gardens of R. P. Butchart, drives around the city and a dinner in the Empress Hotel yesterday.

The visiting Masonic figures were met at the boat by local leaders and conducted on their tour. Most of the visitors left again by the midnight boat for the mainland.

Included in the party were: W. H. Wardrope, K.C., Hamilton, sovereign grand commander; John A. Rowland, K.C., Toronto; J. A. Henderson, Hamilton; Rt. Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, Bishop of Niagara, and his wife, Hamilton; Most Rev. Derwyn T. Owen, Archbishop and Primate of Church of England, and his wife, Toronto; Dr. L. F. Riggs, Toronto; Dr. S. H. Murphy, Renfrew, Ont.; Dr. J. A. Dobbie, Ottawa; Mr. and Mrs. John McKnight, Toronto; Stuart H. Lee, Hamilton; W. H. Davis, secretary, general of the order; A. F. C. Ross, Montreal; C. S. Hamilton, Toronto; James Miller, Winnipeg; J. A. White, Huntsville, Ont.; O. E. Stanton, Montreal; W. M. Logan, Hamilton; C. R. Sayer, Winnipeg; Dr. E. A. Braithwaite, Edmonton; F. A. Copus, Stratford, Ont., and M. J. Macleod, Edmonton.

BOWKER CREEK PLAN PREPARED

Realignment and Faster Flow of Water Included in Saanich Scheme

First definite plans for realignment of Bowker Creek in Saanich, which, if put into effect, will alleviate all flood conditions suffered by Saanich residents on Shelbourne Street during heavy rains, were presented to the municipal council yesterday evening.

The success of the plan in providing flood relief for all those residing on work done by the city and Oak Bay, as the creek passes within the three boundaries.

H. H. Allen, municipal engineer, presented the plans, which propose straightening alignment and increased grading to speed the flow of the water. The work would cost approximately $1,400.

Further action on Bowker Creek improvement awaits a municipal conference with Saanich, city and Oak Bay representatives.

Should Saanich proceed with its work without something being done in the city or Oak Bay the Saanich situation would be relieved but in Oak Bay and the city conditions would be worse owing to the increase in the flow from Saanich, where the source of the creek is located.

In Saanich Mr. Allen proposes a general drop in the ditch level and a straighter path for the water. He also includes the abolition of present level stretches in which water backs up and is chiefly responsible for the flooding.

PROTECTION FOR SHEEP SOUGHT

Saanich May Impose Fine on Owners of Marauding Dogs

Preliminary steps in a move to assist Saanich farmers in the protection of their sheep and game from marauding dogs were taken by the Saanich Council yesterday evening.

The council will seek legal advice regarding its powers to have dog owners keeping their animals controlled at night.

The action was instituted after the council heard a letter from the North and South Saanich Sheep Breeders' Association explaining their problem and requesting assistance.

The sheepbreeders suggested an increase in dog taxes to combat the situation but it was felt this would penalize the innocent for the guilty. Councillor A. G. Lambrick, Ward Three, thought a by-law providing a penalty for owners of dogs who permitted them to roam at night would meet the situation and moved that legal advice in this regard be sought.

Tom Grattan Wins Pacing at Toronto

Toronto, Sept. 6.—Tom Grattan, black gelding owned by Brooks Brothers of London, won the $3,000 pacing feature for three-year-old pacers in straight heats here yesterday at the Canadian National Exhibition.

Driven by Will Hodgins the London-owned pacer swept to victory in easy style in each heat over the half-mile track. Chas. Harvester, and Oliver Harvester finished second and third, respectively.

Wheat Sales Up Statistics Show

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Marketing of wheat in the prairie provinces during the week ended August 23 amounted to 2,313,638 bushels, compared with 1,821,021 bushels the previous week and 9,020,987 in the corresponding week last year, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics.

Marketing by provinces from August 1 to August 23, the figures for the corresponding period last year in brackets, follow: Manitoba, 473,449 bushels (2,954,531); Saskatchewan, 672,561 (3,735,045); Alberta, 1,167,628 (2,331,411).

Receipts by provinces for current crop year, with last year's figures in brackets, follow: Manitoba, 704,809 bushels (3,567,867); Saskatchewan, 1,817,672 (8,567,877); Alberta, 2,854,861 (5,879,977); total, 5,379,342 bushels (15,035,721).

W. I. Hogg Wins Seniors' Golf

Toronto, Sept. 6.—W. I. Hogg of the Hamilton Golf Club, posted a 78 for the second eighteen holes yesterday and won the Canadian Seniors' Golf Association championship on his first bid for the title.

Hogg's two-day total of 161 for the thirty-six holes of medal play placed him seven strokes ahead of J. L. M. Thomson of Niagara, Winnipeg, second with scores of 81-97-168. Hogg had 83 for his first round.

D. C. Grant of Montreal, came in with an 84 to take third place. He had a thirty-six-hole score of 169.

SEEK LIGHTING IN CADBORO BAY

Frank V. Hobbs Requests Improvements in District From Saanich Council

Lighting of the Cadboro Bay district from the Uplands gates to Telegraph Bay Road was proposed to the Saanich Council yesterday evening by Frank V. Hobbs.

Mr. Hobbs requested that the council consider the installation of four lights on Cadboro Bay Road, one between the Uplands gates and the post office, one at the post office, one at Cadboro Bay Road and Maynard Road and the fourth at Telegraph Bay Road and Cadboro Bay Road.

The council decided to obtain an estimate on the question for consideration at the next meeting.

Mr. Hobbs and Mrs. F. Hart also sought restoration of the original fence line along Tudor Avenue to permit access to properties fronting on this roadway. The present fence, or hedge, is owned by the Thomas Goby estate and runs along the centre of the road. This matter is to be taken up with the executors of the estate.

Mr. Hobbs also spoke of the necessity for improvements at the corner of Tudor Road and Windsor Place to facilitate traffic movement there.

Air Stewardess

By Vida Hurst

This idea made her say, resentfully, "I suppose your friends are all betting on the outcome."

"If they are it won't do them any good," she asserted, cheerfully. "I'm not the kind to kiss and tell if that's what you mean. My investigation was purely for my own satisfaction. To prove to myself..."

"You needn't go on," she interrupted. "I can understand your reasons perfectly."

He looked at her then, and whistled. "Gosh, but you're independent. But that's O.K. with me, too. You never saw an Irishman yet who objected to a girl's having spirit."

By this time, they had reached the station where Irene hurried inside to change into her own clothes. The pilot made no further effort to talk to her and at 4:30 her plane was speeding north leaving Barney in Los Angeles.

She told herself he was the coolest, most insolent person she had ever seen but there had been nothing cool or insolent about his kiss. It had been sweet and tender and so exciting that it made her heart race even to think of it.

Well, then, she wouldn't think of it. Now of him. From now on it would be a closed incident.

They arrived in San Francisco promptly at 6:30 and a little later Irene was in her remarkable car hurrying toward her apartment to dress for an engagement with Stephen.

He had promised to take her to the Palace that evening but she had no idea that anyone else was going until they were on their way to the city.

"Bart decided he'd like to take a night off, too," Steve said, adding, "He certainly needs it. He looks all in."

There was no reason, of course, why Dr. Bartlett shouldn't take a night off, but after her refusal the day before, Irene suspected him of deliberately planning it. If he couldn't see her one way, then he would do it the other. Bart was persistent. That was one of the things she admired about him. This way, however, none of the responsibility was on her. If he was determined to break in on her date with Stephen there was nothing she could do about it. The situation was out of her hands and she was rather surprised to realize that her feeling was more that of curiosity than of pleasure. Bart had been intrigued by her refusal to see him. What children men were! Always reaching for the one thing they couldn't have...

of her and after we are married, I shall try to be a devoted husband. But we're not married yet. Why won't you go out with me just one time?"

"Because I don't want to, Bart. I don't see how things can possibly be gained by it."

"Is it because you are afraid?" he demanded. "Afraid you might start caring for me again?"

"Perhaps I don't know. Why should I be upset all over again just to please you?"

"You have changed, haven't you? You couldn't have said a thing like that two months ago."

"I have had a reason to change," she argued.

But as usual in spite of her brave words, her defence against him was weakening. She told herself she positively would not go out with him again under any circumstances but she was afraid if he continued to ask her...

For the remainder of the evening she clung closely to Stephen as if he could protect her. And in the week which followed, Bartlett did not ask her again. She made her trip north and back and south again to Los Angeles and except for her pleasant dates with Stephen nothing happened.

The situation between Eve and Virginia seemed rather strained but Bill continued to appear uninterested in Eve's obvious efforts to ensnare him. On Tuesday, Peggy and Irene had lunch together at the St. Francis where the younger girl confided she often dropped in for a cigarette.

"It reminds me of the hotel in New York," she explained, "and sometimes men try to flirt with me."

"I hope you don't pay any attention to them," Irene said, feeling like a prig.

Peggy frowned.

"Certainly not, Irene! What do you think I am?"

But Irene had not missed the sly look she had just sent the attractive looking man sitting opposite to them. It amused her that Peggy should consider her so dumb yet she suspected that it was innocent enough. Peggy might be undeveloped emotionally but even Peggy had too much sense to pick up an acquaintance with a stranger.

Nevertheless, the luncheon depressed her. Peggy was so restless. If Bartlett didn't pay more attention to her after they were married she was bound to get into trouble.

"It will be a relief to escape from all these worries by flying to San Diego to-morrow," the air hostess thought. But when she entered the Alameda airport the following day, she was annoyed to learn that her pilot was to be the wild Irishman who had kissed her and laughed at her just a week ago.

Chiffon's Full of Slimness

(Dresses from Bergdorf-Goodman)
Cool both to wear and to look at, the new chiffon day-time frocks have enchanting charms with their short full skirts and little-girl necklines. They are youthfully flattering and the sheerness of the fabric keeps this type of skirt from any broadening tendencies.

At the left, navy chiffon forms a peplum dress with a circular skirt and a double flared collar of pale pink organza. Tiny lilac-colored flowers form the bouquet at the neckline. A cool, dull blue is used for the dress in the centre. Pleated frills and flaring skirt. The flowers are of matching chiffon. The belt is of fine-colored velvet with a mother-of-pearl buckle.

At the right a spruce green chiffon, flecked in white uses white organza for its buttons and fluffy collar. The high bodice is draped to the centre of the waistline. The full sleeves fasten just above the elbow with self ties and the skirt is voluminous with a vengeance.

AUDIENCE IS ENTHRALLED

Mme. Huntly Green, Pianiste, Gives Superb Performance at Royal Victoria

By G. J. D.

Whenever the distinguished Canadian pianist, Gertrude Huntly Green, wishes to visit this city, where for some years she was prominently identified with its musical affairs, its citizens will flock in their hundreds to hear her.

In testimony, there was gathered at the Royal Victoria Theatre, yesterday evening, in her only recital during her visit to the coast, a large audience, which gave her a most prolonged and cordial welcome.

Mme. Huntly Green maintains her high artistic level, and her well-arranged programme once more evinced a pianist that determines interpretative sensibilities, rare gifts of insight and delicacy of nuance, fluency of concepts and an admirable precision of detail, a fusion of personal qualities that makes her piano playing of the first order.

Her much anticipated recital is not an occasion to celebrate the technical brilliance of her playing, but, rather, is one to say how she now impresses. It seemed that with the passage of time—not long in the life of a musician—even her splendid mental grasp has grown firmer and that her unusually keen musical nature has deepened with study, observation and experience.

There was not a dull moment—richness in all shades of feeling obviates this—and it was felt that all she did was in the very best interest of the music, a musical realization of every phrase and the setting of it in the correct proportion to the whole.

It is this feature of her playing and the singing beauty of her tone that especially appeal. One simply admires, becomes enraptured, ever ready to respond with a "Bravo," more than evident was it with those present, many of whom were listening to Victoria's pianistic "model" for the first time.

Surely was the recital a crowning success. Every number throughout met with instant and prolonged applause, and Mme. Huntly was obliged to give several encores, including a catchy, delightfully rhythmic jig or hornpipe, as of a harmonic, irresistible and whimsical in its spirited interpretation, and the ever-popular "On Wings of Song" and Cyril Scott's "Dance Negre."

Her programme opened with the three Bach numbers, Chorale, F Minor; Chorale, E Minor—(from the Notebook for Anna Bach); and "Prelude from 'Cello Sonata in C' (in the Gdovsky arrangement), all uplifting, played with deft skill, everything in splendid focus, and with intensity and purpose.

Schumann's "Carnaval," "Scenes Allegro and four pieces," is a set of twenty-one piano pieces written in 1834, each episode being superbly pictorial by the recitalist, who, at its conclusion, was brought to the platform again and again amidst storms of applause.

The third group comprised three Chopin pieces, one of his four "Impromptu," P. Sharp, transportingly brilliant, and the masterpiece, "Fantasie in F Minor," imbued with all its formal beauty and its surprising nobility and dramatic grandeur.

Revelation of the player's stupendous powers and superlative poetic sensibilities.

The Brahms Scherzo in F Minor of the same group was a stirring performance and under her magic fingers scintillated with superb vivacity of spirit. Again tremendous applause followed the group, and after two augmented numbers, a number of handsome bouquets were handed her during the continuous hand-clapping of her listeners.

The concluding group comprised Debussy's novel harmonic progression in his "Reflexions in the Water," the vividness of its suggestion evidently appealing to the player, who delighted everybody supremely, judging from the loud plaudits that followed its fascinating playing; the "Study in E Major" by the modernist, which she played with a strikingly delightful gem, having imagination, brilliance and vigor; and the concluding "One Lives But Once," a waltz by "the waltz king," Johann Strauss, with its formidable transcription by Karl Tausig, was also scintillating, and such a captivating performance that the audience, loath to depart, insisted on further numbers, bestowing a spontaneity of approval impossible to imitate.

The recital was given under the auspices of the Beaux Arts.

MISSIONARIES BY HERITAGE

Rev. and Mrs. B. Bingham
Sailing To-morrow For China; Family Record

Canadian Press

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Rev. and Mrs. Brewster Bingham of Boston, sailing for China by the Canadian-Pacific liner Empress of Canada Saturday, can boast a real heritage in their chosen profession, missionary teaching.

They are bound for Chinese service under the American Board of Commissioners for foreign missions in China.

Mr. Bingham is the son of former U.S. Senator Hiram Bingham and a great-grandson of Rev. and Mrs. Hiram Bingham, who were in the first group of missionaries sailing in the brig Thaddeus from Boston to the Sandwich Islands—now the Hawaiian Islands—in October, 1819.

Mrs. Bingham, a recent bride, was born Frances Beach and is also the great granddaughter of missionaries. Her great-grandfather, Edward Eliza Bliss, worked in Turkey. Her father, Rev. Francis F. Beach, and her mother, the late Ruth Ward Beach, were missionaries at Poochow, China, where Mrs. Bingham was born.

She is the niece of Dr. Mark H. Ward, of Newton Highlands, medical secretary of the American Mission Board.

Mr. Bingham has held student pastorates in Pawlet, Vermont, and in New York City, where up to the time of his leaving for China he has been student pastor at the church of the Son of Man, East 104th Street.

Happy Valley

A large crowd attended the old-time dance on Wednesday night. The prize waltz competition was won by Mrs. Irwin and Mr. Corcoran, with Miss M. Marshall and Mr. Edwards second. The regular monthly dance will be held on Wednesday, September 11, Mrs. Douthwaite's orchestra supplying the music.

Mr. and Mrs. F. D. Calder have returned to their home in North Vancouver after spending some time with Mrs. R. Brown, "Mandarin."

Mr. and Mrs. Ramsfield and family have taken up residence at Glen Lake. Mrs. M. Leighton and Mrs. Ingram have returned to Winnipeg after visiting Mr. and Mrs. W. Leighton.

Mrs. F. Goodall has returned home after spending some time with friends in Vancouver.

RECEPTION TO HONOR PIANIST

Mme. Huntly Green Guest at Party at Mrs. G. M. Weir's Yesterday

Following her recital at the Royal Victoria Theatre yesterday evening, Mme. Gertrude Huntly Green was honored at a delightful reception arranged by the Beaux-Arts Society, which sponsored her concert, and held at the home of Hon. G. M. Weir and Mrs. Weir, "The Oaks," Oak Bay Avenue.

The reception rooms were lovely with flowers. In the drawing-room where the president of the Beaux Arts Society, Mr. Edward Simmons and Mrs. Simmons, and Mme. Huntly were receiving, glad, asters and phlox lent great splashes of color. Supper was served in the dining-room, the table being centred with an artistic combination of gerbers, anthurium and scabious, with tall apricot colored tapers in silver candelabra.

The invited guests included Hon. T. D. Pattullo and Mrs. Pattullo, Hon. John Hart and Mrs. Hart, Hon. K. C. MacDonald and Mrs. MacDonald, Hon. P. M. MacPherson and Mrs. MacPherson, Hon. G. M. Sloan and Mrs. Sloan, Hon. G. E. Pearson, Hon. A. Wells Gray, Dr. and Mrs. C. S. Beale, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Anson, Dr. and Mrs. S. J. Willis.

Weddings

RYLANDS-NEX
At a quiet ceremony at St. John's Church yesterday evening, Mary Esther, third daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Nex, Montreal Street, and Mr. Albert Herbert Rylands, of London, were united in marriage by Rev. Canon F. A. P. Chadwick.

Wearing a navy blue suit with white satin blouse, blue accessories and a silver fox fur, the gift of the bridegroom, with a corsage bouquet of gardenias, the bride was given in marriage by her father.

Mrs. A. E. Nex was in attendance on her sister-in-law, wearing a primrose yellow knitted suit with brown accessories, and a corsage bouquet of pale yellow roses and helianthus. Mr. Nex supported the groom.

A small reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents, where mauve and white flowers predominated in the decorations, and a three-tiered wedding cake centred the supper table.

After a honeymoon spent motoring in Washington State, Mr. and Mrs. Rylands will move their home in Victoria.

ADDISON-KERSHAW
Two popular young people were the principals in a quiet wedding at St. John's Church at noon yesterday when Canon F. A. P. Chadwick united in marriage Irene, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Kershaw, 3016 Harriet Road, and Mr. Joseph Addison, only son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. Addison, 617 Manchester Road.

The bride, who was given away by her uncle, Mr. W. Reay, wore a white knitted suit, a white crepe de Chine hat and a corsage bouquet of roses and swansons.

Her only attendant was her sister, Miss Alice Kershaw, in a suit of blue travel tweed, in a self-check pattern, worn with a blue felt hat trimmed with a silver ornament, and wearing a corsage bouquet of carnations. Mr. Archie McKinnon was best man. A small reception was held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. Kershaw wore a frock of navy blue crepe de Chine and hat to match, and was assisted by Mrs. Reay, in a black and white crepe de Chine dress and a white hat.

TO MAKE DEBUT TO-NIGHT

Miss Terese Todd, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Todd, "Wilmar," St. Charles Street, who will make her formal bow to society this evening at a dance that is being given by her parents in her honor jointly with Miss Kythe Mackenzie. For the occasion a profusion of flowers has been arranged in the home. Dancing will take place in the spacious hall and in the dining-room. Len Acres' Orchestra will supply the dance music. A marquee has been erected on the lawn for the serving of refreshments.

Dancers Strike For NRA Restoration

New York, Sept. 6.—Not a hip was being shaken in eight New York burlesque houses last night as dancers and chorus girls went on strike against what they termed "coolie labor."

Call for the walkout was made by the Burlesque Artists Association, and according to reports the strike had spread to theatres in Washington, Philadelphia, Boston and Atlantic City.

The demands of the association are for restoration of NRA conditions, including a day off every two weeks. Thomas J. Phillips, president of the B.N.A., declared performers are required to work eighty hours a week for an average salary of $21 a week.

Gives Impressions of Royal Silver Jubilee

Mrs. W. Curtis Sampson Described London Festivities at Lady Douglas Chapter Meeting Yesterday

Mrs. W. Curtis Sampson, who has recently returned to Victoria after a visit of several months to Great Britain and the Continent, was the speaker at the meeting of the Sir James and Lady Douglas Chapter, I.O.D.E., yesterday afternoon.

The speaker gave a graphic description of the Silver Jubilee celebrations, including the wonderful parade with its good-humored, orderly crowds of people enjoying the wonderful illuminations, decorations and festivities.

Mrs. Sampson's description of the thrill experienced in waiting for the King's carriage and the real joy of the people, culminating in the hearty cheers of welcome, was very graphic.

The Alderhot tattoo, the annual service of the Knights of St. Michael and St. George at St. Paul's Cathedral, which included the Knights of the Cross, and an empire service at Westminster Abbey, when boys from all over the British Empire were present, were all interestingly described.

The trooping of the colors, when the King, attended by his four sons, saluted the Queen, who was watching from the balcony of Buckingham Palace, was also recalled.

An underlying note of thankfulness to the Almighty permeated all the celebrations, the singing of "Abide With Me" by the entire crowd at the close of the Alderhot tattoo, being an inspiring memory of the close of a wonderful evening.

Prior to Mrs. Curtis Sampson's address, for which Mrs. Colin Cummins, the regent of the chapter, gave her most hearty thanks, a short business meeting was held.

REPORTS PRESENTED

Reports of the conveners for Alexandra Rose Day and Heather Day were received and thanks offered to all who so ably assisted. Special mention was made of W. Jennings, florist, for the use of their store for headquarters and thanks tendered to Mrs. Boorman for the beautiful wreath of heather which was placed on the war memorial by Mrs. T. B. Monk. Grateful thanks were also given to Terry's drug store for their kindness in decorating a window in honor of Heather Day.

Letters of appreciation were received by the chapter from Muriel and Attaché for the Jubilee numbers of The Illustrated London News.

At the close of the meeting refreshments were served by the executive of the chapter, many visitors and invited guests being present.

"STRIP" GOLF DREW CROWD

Oregon Women's Novel Tournament in Various Stages of Undress

Associated Press
Silverton, Ore., Sept. 6. — Mrs. J. Werle stepped out of the past, and Mrs. Ralph Bilyeu stepped out of nearly everything she wore during the course of Silverton's first women's strip golf tournament.

The event, conducted with considerable secrecy yesterday, saw Mrs. Werle billow on to the course in an old-fashioned gown and six petticoats with pantaloons. Three of the petticoats came in on the arm of Mrs. Larry Austin, club president.

Mrs. Bilyeu limped from the game wearing only one shoe and what was described as "an underthing." Several of the other contestants retired in various stages of undress.

Scores ranged from 48 to 65 over the nine-hole course.

SCHOOL LUNCHES SHOULD INVITE YOUNG APPETITES

By MARY E. DAGUE

School bells are now ringing and consequently in many homes school lunch boxes must be packed five mornings out of the week. The lunch-box may merely supplement a hot soup or hot drink which is supplied by the school cafeteria, or it may furnish the whole noon meal. But if you would avoid monotony and furnish wholesome lunches, you will soon discover that you must plan four meals a day in place of the usual three.

The packing of the lunch kit is of almost as great importance as the lunch itself. If plenty of waxed paper, paper napkins, tiny waxed cardboard containers and small paper baking cups and picnic spoons are conveniently at hand, the task is lightened and neatness assured. Well-wrapped foods stay fresh and appetizing, but a carelessly packed lunch can be pretty bad.

NEATNESS AIDS APPETITES

Always consider the personal likes and dislikes of a child. Girls thrive on daintiness. Boys are rather ashamed of this feminine preference and want man-size sandwiches and cookies. But neatness and order appeal to all children.

The age of a child is important, too. Children under twelve require a different sort of lunch than that prepared for the high-school girl or boy.

If there is not a cafeteria in the school to furnish a hot drink or soup, this should be carried in a thermos bottle. The hot food aids digestion and does much to relieve nerve strain.

Of course the sandwich is the mainstay of the lunch box and must be concocted to furnish much food value. Make use of the infinite variety of breads as well as the many sandwich fillings in order to avoid monotony. Try to combine meat with grated or minced vegetables such as carrots, lettuce and celery in sandwich fillings. The combination gains both food value and piquancy. Always butter both sides of bread.

VEGETABLES FOR BULK

Carefully wrapped celery, radishes, carrot sticks and hearts of cauliflower give balance to the lunch by supplying bulk and crispness to a diet that is apt to be concentrated and soft.

Next to the sandwich in importance is the dessert. Fresh fruit always is desirable and easy to pack. Then there are cookies, cup cakes, individual baked custards and firm tapioca puddings to add to the list. When you pack the lunch kit, put the dessert in first. This way the child eats down to it and gets his entire lunch as you want him to have it. Otherwise the dessert may be eaten first.

AGED DIVA TO STAR IN FILM

Mme. Schumann-Heink Gets Three-year Contract With M-G-M

Associated Press

Hollywood, Sept. 6.—At seventy-four, after years of waiting on the fringes of the film industry, Madame Ernestine Schumann-Heink is about to become a movie star.

The famous singer was placed under contract to a major studio yesterday, in a manner that illustrated, perfectly, every movie hopeful's implicit belief—"All I need is a break."

To secure her services, two movie executives engaged in a transcontinental race to Chicago. The one in the airplane won. He was M. C. "Mike" Levi, agent, acting under orders of Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer.

He reached Chicago a few hours ahead of Jesse Lasky, vice-president of the newly formed Pickford-Lasky corporation.

Each wanted to sign the diva.

She took the first offer, a three-year contract tendered by Levi.

Meanwhile, practically every major movie studio here has been casting a yearning eye in her direction.

She appeared in only a few scenes of a Lasky-produced film, "Here's to Romance." No sooner had the film been previewed than Madame Schumann-Heink's telephone began to ring. Unfortunately, she was on her way east.

Royal Oak

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Burgess, with their three children, Mary, Helen and Walter, returned to their home on the West Saanich Road, after spending two months' holiday at Deep Cove.

Miss M. Tait, R.N., returned to Ganges, Salt Spring Island, after visiting her sister, Mrs. L. Scott, Raymond Road.

Mr. and Mrs. T. Huggard, Sidmouth, B.C., are visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Daye, Royal Oak.

Mr. and Mrs. George Massey, West Saanich Road, with their son, Herbert, returned home on Monday, after visiting relatives in Nanaimo.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Wiggins, Winnipeg, are visiting Mrs. A. J. Prosser, for a few days.

Miss Barbara Cuthbertson, Raymond Road, was the guest of honor at a birthday tea given by Mr. and Mrs. O. Lindgren, at their summer cottage, "Caddy Camp," Cadboro Bay, on Sunday. The guests at tea included Miss B. Cuthbertson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bryden and Mr. and Mrs. F. Carls.

S. Travers, Wabaman, Alberta, is spending a week with his family at their new residence on the West Saanich Road.

Lady Houston Befriends Girl

London (By Mail).—Maud Mason, the thirteen-year-old north country schoolgirl whose essay praising England recently caused an uproar in the House of Commons, has found that publicity pays.

In her essay she wrote: "England is only a small country but it is better than any other country." For this she was alleged to have been rebuked by a school inspector for believing in "old-fashioned imperialism."

The matter was raised in Parliament and after a heated debate it was agreed that the inspector had made his criticism in a general way and not as a direct rebuke.

There the matter ended—but not for Maud.

As a result of the essay, she is to have her dearest wish—she is to become a dressmaker.

Lady Houston, who recently offered a large sum of money for Britain's defense, is to make this possible.

"Maud and I are, I believe, the only patriots left in Britain," she said. "I want to reward her for her loyalty to the crown."

And so, as soon as Maud leaves school steps will be taken to apprentice her to a good dressmaker and to provide for her during her years of training.

This would not have been possible without Lady Houston's help. Maud is the sixth child of a family of ten. Her parents are by no means wealthy and her elder sisters are working as machinists.

"It's a marvelous chance," her mother said when told of the gift. "I don't know how we can thank the lady."

Fortune FOR FIANCE

Fate has not been so kind to Miss Norah Cecilia de Vahl, a sixty-year-old London woman.

Not long ago she fell in love for the first time. She became engaged and was looking forward to marriage.

She seemed to have everything that was good—a fortune of $164,584, a luxurious home in a fashionable part of London, and many friends.

Then she died.

Her will now reveals that she has bequeathed $30,000 to her "beloved fiance," formerly an officer in the Indian army.

It reads: "I bequeath $22,500 upon trust for my beloved fiance, Vivian Godwin Robert, M.B.E., M.C., for life, with the remainder to my niece, Henrietta Mary de Vahl Metters."

Seven thousand five hundred pounds to him absolutely with all my fondest love, my diamond all-round ring which I always wear."

Then Miss Vahl remembers a host of "dear friends."

Coats do not eat tin cans; they lick the labels for the salt contained in the paper.

Your Baby and Mine

By MYRTLE MEYER ELDRED

GROWING CHILD NEEDS MORE NOURISHING DIET THAN ADULT

Children come to know and accept the fact that they go to bed at different hours than the family, that they wear different kinds of clothes, that their games and amusements differ—then why should parents quibble at differentiating their diets? Mothers who are most conscientious about children's sleeping hours, feel themselves hard hearted when they have to refuse the child some food that is on the family table.

Children ought to understand from babyhood up that their diets fulfill different requirements than those of their parents. They are eating to grow. They drink milk, eat vegetables, fruits, eggs, wholewheat cereals and breads, principally because from those foods they get the best and most nourishing growth elements.

Children, despite their small size, need more nourishment than adults. They need to have their energy needs satisfied, and because children are so excessively energetic, this is no small item. They need to have supplies of particular types of nourishment to repair cell destruction and to build new cells. They need foods which protect them from a state of body unhealthfulness which makes them the easy prey of disease germs.

Children may not understand all of these needs and be prepared to insure they are met. Adults should understand these facts and their judgment should be guided by them.

THEY'RE REASONABLE

In all ways the diet of the adult differs materially from that of children, and that is one reason why the latter, can, with impunity eat foods which are appetizing but which do them neither much nutritive good nor any particular digestive harm.

Ordinarily, children will be reasonable about eating their own foods and not asking for those from the family table—which may be differently flavored and treated, even if basically they are the same foods—if adults never permit themselves to say, "Oh, just a little won't hurt him."

DIET SUFFERS

Perhaps a little of any food won't hurt a child, what is harmed is his respect for the parental dictum that his foods are for him and theirs for them. Once the child feels that it is only a whim of the adults that denies him the food served to them, he becomes a perpetual nuisance at the table, refusing what he is supposed to eat and dictating his own diet, to his increasing detriment.

FALL FAIR AT COBBLE HILL

High Quality of Exhibits
Noted at Annual Exhibition

Cobble Hill, Sept. 5.—Although entries were not so numerous, a high quality of exhibits marked the twenty-seventh annual Fall Fair at Cobble Hill yesterday. R. H. Pooley, M.P.P., performed the opening ceremony.

Judges of the show were: W. H. Robertson, vegetables and field produce; A. M. McPherson, livestock; Mrs. T. W. Martindale, ladies' work, domestic science and juvenile classes; Rev. C. McDermid, poultry; Mrs. R. H. Rorfall, art; R. H. Palmer, fruit; Capt. T. B. Matheson, flowers; G. E. Bonner, photographs; W. E. Hagger, eggs. There was a good attendance, and all arrangements had been excellently handled by the secretary, R. B. Moulton, ably assisted by the president, Lieut.-Col. S. T. Oldham and the board of directors.

City United Church Sunday school was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Rudd, Burnside Road, on Wednesday evening. Rev. William Allan was in the chair.

As Mr. H. S. James expressed his desire to be relieved of the duties of superintendent, Miss Muriel Rudd was unanimously elected to fill the vacancy. Other elections included that of Miss Annie Stuart as assistant superintendent, and Miss Jean Scott as pianist. Deep expressions of appreciation were expressed with regard to the many years of faithful labor on the part of Mr. James and the workers were gratified to know that he would still continue as a worker in the Sunday school.

Arrangements were made for a special rally day service on Sunday, September 22, this to be held in conjunction with the forthcoming anniversary of the Garden City United Church.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Raynor and their small son Tommy have returned to their home in Winnipeg, Manitoba, after being the guests of Mr. Raynor's parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. Raynor, Carey Road.

San Francisco Starts Local NRA To Hold Gains Won Under Blue Eagle

To preserve some of the good features of the now-defunct NRA, San Francisco merchants have organized a voluntary "Fair Play League." Left to right are Robert A. Ross, president, B. R. Funtlin, T. C. Meagher and M. P. Bastiani, members. A publicity drive urges the public to co-operate with merchants who do not cut wages, raise hours, or engage in unfair competition.

San Francisco, Sept. 6.—With all the fanfare and publicity campaign that marked the hatching of the late lamented Blue Eagle, a "Fair Play" movement is taking this city by storm.

Started soon after the death of NRA, the Fair Play League is already making a bid to extend itself into something like a nation-wide movement.

PUBLIC BACKING SOUGHT

"Fair Play" placards decorate street cars, billboards, department store windows.

Huge banners float above some of the city's largest retail stores.

The neighborhood merchant displays a card in his window; his stationery carries an official emblem.

Newspapers are carrying an extensive educational advertising campaign.

Salespeople wear an official button in coat lapel or dress.

Substitute for the NRA?

"No," emphatically declare officials of the Fair Play League.

TO UPHOLD STANDARDS

"San Francisco's retailing business is definitely on a fair play basis. This means retail wages, retail hours and working conditions, which were made mandatory by a now defunct law, will be continued by thousands of merchants. The movement is voluntary, not compulsory. It is absolutely non-political," says Robert Ross, president.

Designed to continue trade practices and working conditions as they existed at the start of 1935, the league was formed shortly after the supreme court decisions in the National Recovery Administration case. In a short month since its inception, 10,000 retail workers in this city are under the league's plans.

Its ultimate goal is the enrolment of San Francisco's 7,000 retail merchants. Based on the last census, 25 per cent of the retail workers are already wearing the emblem of the league.

SUPPORT IS GENERAL

An intensive campaign to educate the public into the benefits of supporting league stores is being carried out. In addition to the advertising campaign, five minute talks are being given over radio stations. An active speakers' bureau has been set up and engagements made before trade groups and parent-teacher associations.

The league has the support of political groups, the State Federation of Labor, the mayor and the governor.

MEMBERS TAKE PLEDGE

A short membership agreement, which every merchant is required to sign, sets forth principles of the league. Under the heading of "Principles of Fair Play" the member agrees:

"To maintain not less than the same standard of wages as prevailed in my business during the first part of this year 1935.

"To be governed by the same rules regarding child labor and the rights of employees as those by which (I) was governed in the beginning of the year.

"That (my) advertising shall be truthful and in the spirit of Fair Play to the consumer and to fellow merchants.

"Not to sell as a 'loss leader' (my) merchandise below landed cost except to meet a price set by a competitor."

OTHER CITIES INTERESTED

That the plan is arousing nationwide interest is shown by the number of inquiries being received at the league's headquarters. Communications have been received from trade organizations in Boston; Portland, Ore.; Fresno, Calif.; Florence, Ala.; Pittsburgh; Great Bend, Kansas, and Portland, Me.

"Success of the plan, of course, depends on the public," Mr. Ross said. "Its failure would mean that merchants who are trying to do the right thing by their employees and customers would be forced against their will to meet unsound competition with unfair working hours, unfair wages and chaotic conditions of employment."

WHO WILL USE "THE FAMILY CAR" — A PROBLEM IN SELFISHNESS

"Dad, can I have the car?" Mother spoke up then and said, "No, we're going out."

"Well, I've just got to have it. I've asked Rene to go to the dance. You can't get to the club any other way."

"Where are we going?" asked Dad. "He would. His wife gave him a sharp glance."

"To the Taylor's. I promised them."

"You could take a street car to the Taylor's," said Dad.

"We could but we won't," replied his mother.

DAD TO THE DEFENCE

"He's in a jam, Mary," protested Dad. "We have to help the kid out. If Rene's been asked to the dance, she's been asked. He'll have to take the car."

"Now you two listen," bristled mother. "Bob's only seventeen. He has the car nearly all day, except when he's grudgingly drives me to market. The other day I asked him to take me to Mrs. Bell's bridge and then call and get me. But it interfered with a tennis match of his and he acted as though I were a superfluous nuisance. He came an hour late. There I sat."

"We're always thinking of your feelings, Bob, but it never occurs to you to think of ours. You take too much for granted. Why didn't you ask me if we would need the car to-night before you asked Rene? Anyway she's too young and you're too young to be tramping around at night to dance."

"Yes and I want the car sometimes too. I did all my own work for years to save for it. You bought it for me—for us I mean. I don't see why I should let Bob use it all day and all night. Besides he'll get killed. He comes in too late."

"Aw, Mom, you can't break up a party."

"You don't need to drive thirty miles after a party to cool off."

"Well, you're in bed and you don't need it then."

"I need the extra money it takes for gas. Anyway we never had a car at your age."

"There weren't any clubs then," Dad reminded her.

ONE SOLUTION

"All right, then," Mother, defeated, rose from the table. "I'll give you the car, Bob. The vote is two to one. But you earn the money for gas and upkeep. I'll buy myself a bicycle."

Suddenly Bob had an idea. "Say, that's great. If you get me a bike I can go places. All except some dances. I don't want the car, honestly. Mother, I guess, I have been pretty selfish. But you'd better learn to drive."

Which was one way of solving the problem. But mother was right. Youth is appropriating too many family cars and I for one consider it unfair and dangerous.

MORGAN FILES HELD IN VAULT

U.S. State Department Keeps Banker-British-French Documents

Washington, Sept. 6.—Acting as a mediator between the senate munitions committee and the British and French governments, the State Department has taken custody of a truck load of J. P. Morgan and Company records.

The ledgers, accounts, letters and papers of all kinds cover financial transactions carried on by the New York banking house as fiscal agent for the two governments between 1914 and 1917, when the United States was a neutral.

The records were brought from New York to the State Department August 19 in a guarded, heavily-loaded truck. They are now locked in a thick-walled room, where committee investigators have access.

The plan was worked out after the two governments had objected to having the records turned over to the senate committee. They presented to the State Department the view that the records of transactions carried on for them by their fiscal agent were their property. As such, their representatives contended the files should be immune to seizure by a senate committee.

After discussions with committee officials, Morgan company officers and representatives of the governments, State Department officials arrived at the arrangement under which the department would take custody of all papers and books relating to two Morgan Company accounts.

UNUSUAL WILL STILL STANDS

Los Angeles Man Fails to Upset Toronto Bequest to Biggest Family

Toronto, Sept. 6.—Action brought by James A. Nowell of Los Angeles, Calif., to set aside the will of Charles Vance Millar, Toronto barrister, who died some years ago, was dismissed by P. H. Barlow, K.C., Master of the Supreme Court of Ontario, here today.

The plaintiff took the ground the provisions of the will, were against public policy in so far as a portion of the estate was left to the Toronto mother who would give birth to the most children within ten years after Millar's death. It was also claimed Nancy Vance Millar, an aunt of Charles Millar, had assigned part of her interest in the estate to Nowell.

The action was dismissed by the Master due to Nowell's failure to comply with an order to put up an additional $1,000 security for costs of the action.

THE SPORTS MIRROR

THE BRILLIANT major baseball career of Earle Ryan Combs appears ended. The management of the New York Yankees trusts that expert repair work in a Manhattan hospital will make Combs's shoulder as good as new, but the veteran outfielder has no such hopes. "I reckon I must be jinxed and my number's up," says Combs. "Looks like I better get out before anything worse happens to me."

"I was getting near the end of my string, anyway. So it will probably be back to the farm, and here's hoping one of my Kentucky cows doesn't step on me."

It was feared that Combs was through when he fractured his skull and broke his left collarbone in charging into the wall in St. Louis a year ago, but he made a surprising recovery. The one-time schoolmaster of the Cumberland Islands divided the Yankee Red Sox fielding with Jesse Hill until Red Rolfe fell over backwards on top of Earle in Chicago the other afternoon. The accident occurred when both athletes attempted to catch a short fly.

Combs, who is thirty-four, suffered a separation of the right collarbone at the place of attachment to the shoulder blade and a pulling of a ligament. He was spiked and bruised above the right knee.

Combs's right arm will be strapped tightly to his side for at least three weeks.

There is grave danger of this sort of injury affecting Combs's throwing, never one of his strongest qualities, which were his ability as a leadoff man and speed that enabled him to patrol a large slice of the Ruth's territory as well as his own while he was playing center field.

Joe McCarthy managed Louisville in 1922 when the Colonels sold the scholarly Combs, whose hair then was iron grey, to the Yankees for $50,000. It was one of the most satisfactory deals ever made by Col. Jacob Ruppert's baseball company.

Combs may manage the Louisville club in 1935. He rejected a proposition to pilot the Colonels this season, wishing to prolong his big league span.

If Combs bows out, Lou Gehrig and Tony Lazzeri will be the only remaining members of the old Yankees who lambasted their way to American League pennants in 1926, 1927, and 1928, and who, with a few replacements, came back to once more prevail in 1929. They swept the world series in four consecutive contests in 1927, 1928, and 1929.

Lazzeri has managerial aspirations, and it is possible that he will leave the outfit that he has served so well and long to make his debut as a fieldmarshal in 1935.

Mark Koenig, of the old and illustrious Yankee outfit, now is the utility infielder of the New York Giants, and Waite Hoyt hangs on in Pittsburgh.

But Babe Ruth already is the forgotten man of baseball, and gone are Long Bob Meusel, Jumping Joe Dugan, Herb Pennock, and the rest.

Waite Hoyt helped the old Yankees to cluster three flags in 1921, 1922, and 1923, and in 1926, 1927, and 1928. When the Yankees bogged down in 1929, the season that the Philadelphia Athletics smashed through for the first time in fifteen years, Hoyt was asked what was wrong with the club.

"There are not enough Yankees on it," replied the great right-hander.

The New York club has had its full quota of injuries this season, yet the Detroit Tigers undoubtedly would be experiencing considerable more difficulty in lengthening their lead were there a few more Yankees with the Yankees.

Dorothy Traung Heads Imposing Entry From U.S.

Championship to Open Monday at Jericho Club With Brilliant Field

Leading Eastern Canadians Arrive

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Twenty feminine shot-makers from eastern Canada and the United States Pacific Coast arrived here yesterday, vanguard of an expected three score or more invaders, who will start their trek of the links of the Jericho Golf and Country Club course on Monday in search of the Canadian women's open golf championship.

Sixty-five entries have already been filed, including British Columbians, and almost as many more are expected to be in when the entry list closes to-night.

Miss Helen Bernard of the Royal Montreal Golf Club and Quebec's quartette for the interprovincial team matches at Victoria the week following the open tournament, arrived along with a trio of Ontario's feminine golfing elite and a prairie star, Mrs. F. J. Mulqueen, who with Mrs. Gooderham, Toronto, will make up half of Ontario's team, tackled the rolling fairways at Jericho yesterday and carded a neat 80. Mrs. Gooderham and Mrs. Leo Dolan, Ottawa, who traveled with Mrs. Mulqueen, will do their links testing to-day along with Mrs. J. T. Gray, Calgary, winner of the recently concluded Banff tournament.

Non-playing golf executives, Mrs. Edwin Crockett and Mrs. M. Kathleen Rowe, Toronto, president and secretary respectively, of the Canadian Ladies' Golf Union, also arrived yesterday.

Dorothy Traung, San Francisco, fresh from the United States national women's meet at Minneapolis, headed a quartette of American divoters who joined the eastern arrivals yesterday.

With Miss Traung were Mrs. R. S. Leachman and her two-handicap daughter, Marion, from Vallejo, Calif.; Mrs. C. J. Woerner, Los Angeles, another two-handicap player, and Mrs. J. D. Gilmore, Seattle.

Mrs. Gilmore is the only entry so far from Seattle, but at least ten more, including Mrs. Vera Hutchings Ford, former Vancouver ace, were expected by to-day.

No Victoria entries have been received yet, but a good-sized delegation from the capital city is expected to accompany Mrs. E. Jackson and Marjorie Todd, who have been picked for the Coast team in the interprovincial meet.

WALLACE WILL DEFEND TITLE

Canadian Welterweight Champion Battles Carroll at Ottawa To-night

Ottawa, Sept. 6.—Gordon Wallace, the Vancouver hurricane, and Eddie Carroll, Ottawa's hope for a Canadian boxing crown, loafed yesterday in anticipation of their ten-round welterweight title at the auditorium to-night.

Wallace, the champ who would have fought before the home town folks if it could have been arranged less expensively, was described by Jack Allen, his manager, as ready for a "terrific" defence of his crown.

Julius Goldberg, the challenger's manager, said his charge also was in top form and ready to go all out through the ten rounds if necessary.

Gordon said he would do his best to knock Carroll into twilight sleep in the first three rounds, having a hunch the Ottawa man will be trying to do the same thing to him.

Both men, after beginning a verbal offensive with startling modesty, warmed up as the zero hour approached. Wallace said he expected to win by an early knockout and "I don't believe that Carroll will give me a battle." Carroll declared his belief that the "reign of Wallace is over. I will be the new champion Friday night."

U.S. Net Play Still Held Up

Forest Hills, N.Y., Sept. 6.—For the fourth successive day, rain forced postponement of play in the national singles tennis championships.

Officials hope now to complete the tournament by Wednesday.

WILSON WINS SECOND HEAT

Ontario Speedboat Pilot Takes Stranglehold on World Championship

Toronto, Sept. 6.—Harold Wilson, the pudgy powerboat pilot from Ingersoll, Ont., flashed over the lashing Lake Ontario ten-mile course yesterday evening to win his second heat of the world championship for 225 cubic inch hydroplanes and take a stranglehold on the title for the second straight year.

Always with a 100-yard lead, Wilson's new Miss Canada IV rode the waves at little less than forty miles an hour to cover the Canadian National Exhibition course in fifteen minutes and eight seconds.

Closing in on the Canadian craft as it flashed past the judges' stand, the flat, fleet "Hopalong Baby," piloted by Roy S. Foyle, Lake Hopalong, N.J., took second place with less than seventy-five yards margin over Dr. C. H. Bagley's green and white Wilmer 111 from Baltimore, Md.

The round, smiling Wilson, unless something unforeseen happens, will carry off the championship. His win yesterday gave him a total of 800 points against 525 for Bagley's Baltimore entry.

EDWARDS WILL MEET HOPKINS

Colorful Wrestlers to Battle in Main Event on Mt. Stephen Card To-night

Wally Edwards, Cedar Hill "Wildcat," rough and ready young wrestler, will tangle with Reggie Hopkins, colorful local mat artist this evening in the feature wrestling event on the Mount Stephen Athletic Club's mixed card to be staged in their popular outdoor arena on Mount Stephen Avenue.

Both boys are well-versed in the art of the bone-grinding game and when they meet this evening it should be a thriller. They will battle at 157 pounds and are scheduled to go five four-minute rounds. The opening match will be at 8.30 o'clock.

Those two popular matmen, Bill Stein and Bud Kerch, will meet in the semi-wind-up wrestling bout and are slated to go four four-minute rounds at 135 pounds.

Jack Lacey and Joe Wong will battle in the other 135-pound class and will battle four four-minute rounds. The rounding out of the wrestling portion of the card will bring together Colin Munroe and Don Munroe, five- and six-year-old brother mat stars in an exhibition wrestling match at forty-five pounds.

Four glove-throwing bouts will complete the programme, all of which are scheduled to go three-two-minute rounds.

The main boxing event will bring together Harry Morrison and Roy Duval at 100 pounds.

Red Clarke vs. Red Knowles at eighty pounds.

Dickie Reid vs. Billy Thorburn at seventy-five pounds.

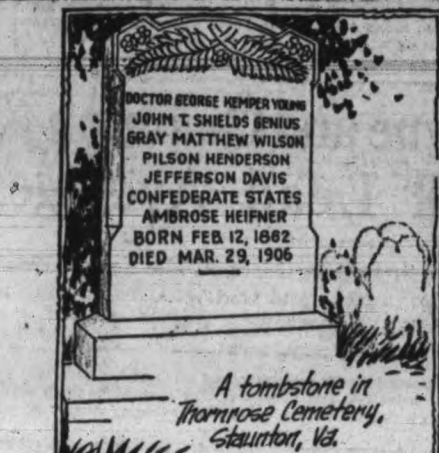

Bill Thorburn vs. Frank Bombardier at eighty-five pounds.

Louis Callan, matchmaker and referee, will be the third man in the ring.

An invitation has been extended to the members of the Elks' Club to be the guests of the Mount Stephen Athletic Club this evening to witness the card.

STRANGE AS IT SEEMS

—By John Hix

Strange as it seems, the first submarine warfare dates back to the beginning of United States history, when a crude yet ingenious one-man submarine attacked a British frigate lying at anchor in New York harbor.

The submarine, designed and built by David Bushnell, was hand operated. For a quick dive, water could be admitted into the bottom of the boat, later to be pumped out by hand when the craft was ready to rise.

The torpedo was tied on the outside, with it was a screw arrangement so that the operator could attach it to an enemy ship. On its first attack,

The word "lumber" is traced back to the name "Lombard" in Northern Italy. The Lombards were noted for their money lending, and in England the word came to mean money lender or pawnbroker.

By extension, it was also applied to things pawned, later to furniture and other things held by a pawnbroker, and finally to anything that is stored or piled up, such as lumber in the sense we know.

Corruption of the original spelling changed Lombard into lumber.

To-morrow: Sailor of Fortune.

FOURTEEN-DAY RACE MEET WILL OPEN TO-MORROW AT POPULAR WILLOWS TRACK

To-morrow afternoon at the Willows track the fourteen-day horse racing meet will be staged daily, and with over 300 thoroughbreds stabled at the plant, the fans are assured of good fields, every day. All preparations for the opening have been completed with the officials at the track to-day taking entries for the opening card.

According to W. J. Mearns the Willows track is in fine condition and it is more than likely that several new records will be marked up during the meet.

JASPER LINKS FINAL GAINED

Ada Mackenzie and Barbara Northwood Will Battle For Women's Title

Canadian Press

Jasper, Alta., Sept. 6.—Miss Ada Mackenzie, Toronto veteran, and Miss Barbara Northwood, Winnipeg youngster, qualified here yesterday for the final of the women's championship at the annual Totem Pole Golf Week.

The final was to be played to-day.

Miss Lois McLaren, Winnipeg, put up a valiant struggle against Miss Mackenzie, former Canadian titlist, before being eliminated on the seventeenth. Miss Northwood evaded the Winnipeg-Toronto score by defeating Mrs. Eric Phillips, Toronto, 4 and 2.

Play for the men's title advanced to the semi-finals. Henry Ward, Regina, eliminated Carl Havens, Seattle, 2 and 1; Herb Clark, Calgary, beat Capt. C. V. Deane, Edmonton, 3 and 2; Paige Lehman, Minneapolis, eliminated Paul Moore, Kansas City, on the eighteenth, and R. Chadwick, Winnipeg youth, trounced R. P. Baker, Vancouver, former winner, 4 and 3.

THE BIG SIX

Joe Vosmik, American League leader and third man in the Big Six, set the pace for the sextette yesterday when only half the members were in action. Vosmik rapped out four hits in seven trips to the plate in a doubleheader against Boston to bring his average up to .350.

Joe Medwick managed to clip a few points between his mark and that of Arky Vaughan, Big Six and National League leader. Vaughan had one of his rare hitless days, dropping three points to .394, while Medwick, his two out of three to pick up two points for a .370 mark.

Orillia Captures Lacrosse Series

Orillia, Ont., Sept. 6.—Orillia Terriers, Dominion lacrosse champions, took their first step here yesterday evening towards retaining the Manul Cup by defeating their second straight victory over Brampton 11 to 3 for the championship of group one.

The Terriers will now meet the winners of group No. 2, Burlington Beavers, for the Ontario Amateur Lacrosse Association title.

KRESGES TO MEET

A meeting of Kresges Football Club will be held in the store, Douglas Street, this evening at 7.30 o'clock. All players and others interested in the club are requested to attend.

Miss Wethered In Love With Her Job

Chotteau Fails In Long Swim

San Pedro, Cal., Sept. 6.—The projected Santa Catalina channel swimmer, ended in failure here yesterday evening when he was taken from the water three miles from shore.

He had been in the water a few minutes over twenty-four hours in his second attempt at conquering the treacherous waters which have been successfully crossed only by George Young, Wrigley swim winner ten years ago.

T. ALEXANDER IS PRESIDENT

Veteran Quoits Player Elected Head of Victoria Quoiting Club

At the annual meeting of the Victoria Quoiting Club, held Wednesday evening, Tom Alexander, veteran quoits artist, was elected president for the year commencing September 1.

Other officers elected for the ensuing year follow: Honorary presidents, Mayor David Leeming, Alec McCloy and W. J. Rennie; vice-president, James McMillan; games committee, Tom Alexander, Duncan McCloy, James McMillan, Don McMillan and Sam Watt; grounds superintendent, Donald McCloy; social committee, James Leiper and Tom Scouler; secretary, Duncan McCloy, 2660 Belmont Avenue, phone E4446.

The new grounds on the corner of Blanshard Street and Pandora Avenue are rapidly being put into shape. An exciting game is promised on Saturday, when two experts, Tom Alexander and Jas. McMillan, will meet in a challenge match. The winner of the match has been challenged by Sam Watt. Another keep match will be played shortly between the president and vice-president teams, and a handsome trophy will be presented the winner.

A large number of new members are now joining up, and practice games have been arranged for the novices on Saturday afternoons.

Vancouver Island championships will be held next year in addition to intercity matches.

A get-together social will be held some time next month, and the annual dance on New Year's Eve.

Those wishing to join the club are asked to get in touch with the secretary.

LUPEZ TAKES BOUT EASILY

Ends Wrestling Match With Adoree at Vancouver in Opening Round

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Andre Adoree, Montreal's wrestling Frenchman, met more than his match yesterday evening on the main bout of a mat card here when he was defeated by Vincent Lupéz, Mexico City.

Adoree weighed 215 pounds and Lupéz 232.

In the very first round the Montrealer ran into trouble. Before the round was well started Lupéz had picked the husky Frenchman up over his head and gained the first fall with a body slam. Andre still felt the effects of the fall and could not come out for the second round, conceding the deciding fall to Lupéz.

Joe Parelli, 175, Italy, and Chief Thunderbird, 185, Saanich, Vancouver Island, went six rounds to a draw the first fall with a body slam in the fourth round, but the Indian came in strong in the final session to gain the tying fall with a body press and slam.

Gene Labelle, 165, Montreal, and Ernie Arthur, 162, Trail, B.C., went four fast rounds to a no-fall draw in another event.

Britain's Famous "Business Woman" Goller Delighted With Success of Her Venture; Has Wonderful Personality

"I have been associated with golf for the last two and a half years in a business way and I simply love it." That was the answer the Sports Editor of The Times received from Joyce Wethered, famous British "business woman" golfer, to the question as to how she liked being associated with the sport in her present status, during an interview yesterday evening at the Empress Hotel, Miss Wethered played in an exhibition match this afternoon at the Victoria Golf Club.

Within two inches of six feet in height and straight as a die, with a smile that immediately makes one feel at ease in her presence, Miss Wethered has a most pleasing personality. With her bobbed hair, lightly streaked with grey, England's wonder woman of the links, strikes a stranger by her distinguished appearance. She is easy to talk to and only too willing to answer any question. It is easy to see why she has been so popular with the sports fraternity since she started her North American tour two and a half months ago.

TOUR A SUCCESS

"Although I don't like to say so myself, I have been told my tour has been an outstanding success. Although the galleries have not been as large as I expected, officials throughout the United States have been most enthusiastic over my matches so I guess my engagements on this continent have done something towards the development of golf," Miss Wethered stated.

Questioned regarding the courses in the United States, as compared to those in Britain, Miss Wethered declared the former were much softer and looser, and although the majority of the links on this continent were narrower than those of her own country they were not as difficult to play.

Of the many courses she has played since arriving in New York months ago Miss Wethered liked the beautiful links at Pebble Beach, California, the best of all. Although she did not score so well on the southern course she was greatly impressed by the layout.

STRENUOUS TRIP

Miss Wethered has enjoyed the trip immensely but is very tired and will be glad when her tour ends in eastern Canada in a few weeks. Since starting on her long trip across the United States Miss Wethered has played an average of four matches a week and on several occasions in the east and middle west was playing in a temperature of around 100 degrees.

"I certainly was not used to such heat but after all the Americans play in it all the time so why shouldn't I?" the visiting star remarked with a smile.

The United States has three or four particularly good women golfers, topped by Mrs. Glenna Collett Vase, recent winner of the American title, but the remainder are nothing to speak of in the opinion of Miss Wethered.

When asked for her opinion on the result of the approaching Ryder Cup matches between British and United States professionals Miss Wethered stated that a lot depended on the weather. If it was very hot she did not think the British players would stand up very well under the strain. "They worry too much about the heat before the matches are ever played. As a result if the weather should be a little warm they are under a handicap before they start," she declared.

Miss Wethered will leave on tonight's boat for Vancouver where she is scheduled to play to-morrow and will then continue east to wind up her tour with engagements at Toronto and Montreal before returning to England.

Monthly Event At Victoria Golf Club

The first of the six monthly competitions for the season will be played on Sunday at the Victoria Golf Club. The competition will be a medal round, eighteen holes under full handicap. Post entries will be received, and players will choose their opponents and arrange their starting times. Two prizes will be awarded.

There will be six competitions, medal and match play alternating, and at the end of the series the six winners will play off, thirty-six holes match play against par, for a prize.

St. Louis and Chicago Move Away From Faltering Giants

Call Entries For Football League

Entries are now being called for the first and second divisions of the Victoria and District Football League and will close at 5 o'clock next Thursday. J. R. Jones, secretary of the Victoria committee of the British Columbia Football Commission, stated to-day it was hoped to usher in the 1935-36 season on September 21.

Capture Games As New York Club Is Defeated By Reds

Kampouris Clouts Triple to Give Cincinnati 4 to 1 Win; Cards Whip Boston

KEEN STRUGGLE IN COAST LOOP

The law of averages, that vague code that is blamed or praised for so many happenings in the sport world, was the only thing that was keeping New York Giants out of third place in the National Baseball League.

The club that set the pace in the circuit from late April nearly to the end of August, found its slump still going strong at Cincinnati yesterday and took a 4 to 1 setback from the Reds in the second game of their series. Meanwhile the Giants' rival contenders for the pennant, the league-leading St. Louis Cardinals and challenging Chicago Cubs, won their games. The Cards went on a batting rampage to trim the Boston Braves 15 to 3 while the Cubs outlasted the Phillies 3 to 2 in an eleven-inning pitching duel.

THREE GAMES AHEAD

As a result the Cards moved out three games ahead of New York and Chicago moved a half-game ahead of the Giants. As the averages worked out, however, the Giants, with seven more games to play than Chicago, had the better percentage, .511 to .508, and according to the "law of averages" in the usual sense of the expression, the Giants have a better chance to gain ground since they have more games to play and have lost fewer than Chicago.

Pilot Bill Terry did his best to keep defeat away from the New Yorkers yesterday as he hit safely five times in as many trips to the plate, but his cohorts could not come through against the expert elbowing of Al Hollingsworth, Clyde Castelman, New York, got himself into just one hole on the mound and that cost him the ball game when he loaded the bases in the sixth just after New York had tied the score. Then pitched one where Alex Kampouris, another Red rookie, could belt it for three bases.

The Cubs found Curt Davis, star Philadelphia flinger, a match for Charley Root most of the way. They found him for two runs in the second and were blanked for eight in the fifth while the Phils tied the score. They broke through in the seventh, however, when pasta of Augie Galan and Ken O'Dea plus a tumble by Dolph Cammare loaded the sacks and Frank Demaree came through with his third hit of the game.

EQUALS RECORD

The Cards had just a breeze against Boston's cellar champs as Terry Moore, leading off, equalled the modern major league record by making six hits in six times up and his mates lambasted Fred Frankhouse and Huck Betts for thirteen more blows. The

Vancouver Hockey Players to Paris

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Brian Thompson and Art Schuman, members of last year's Vancouver Cubs amateur hockey team, announced yesterday evening they expected to leave in about ten days for Paris, France, where they said they had been promised a tryout by the Paris Ice Hockey Club. Thompson, a forward, and Schuman, who plays defence, said they would work their way across the Atlantic on a cattle boat.

Braves tossed in five errors and could hit Phil Collins only eight times.

Pittsburgh's fourth-place Pirates got back on the winning trail, a bit too far back to look dangerous any more, when Gus Suh's homer and doubles by Peg Young and Bud Hefey enabled them to come from behind with four runs in the eighth and beat Brooklyn 5 to 4.

The Cleveland-Boston doubleheader was the only part of the American League programme to survive the continued rain, and that resulted in an even break that left the Indians in third place and the Red Sox fifth. Willis Hudlin's six-hit elbowing and his home run gave the Indians an 8 to 1 decision over Lefty Grove, but the Sox came back behind Wes Ferrell's brilliant flinging to win 6 to 1.

COAST LEAGUE

The Coast League may yet give the form players a break by settling down to a two-day pennant race between the San Francisco Seals and the Portland Ducks.

The experts who pick their long-run winners primarily on the basis of pitching and batting strength have been badly puzzled by developments of the second half of the split season. From the standpoint of hurling and hitting, as well as fielding, it looked like a setup for the Seals and Ducks, who excel in those departments. But the Seals, while flirting with the top spot, have not been able to hold it for any long time, and Portland only recently has come to the fore.

Meanwhile the San Francisco Missions, sixth in batting averages and any of dependable hurlers, have been coming through in the pitcher's cline to a berth at or near the top.

Signs of the Mission crackup that the experts have been predicting, appear this week. Yesterday the Streamliners took their third straight loss from Los Angeles, 8 to 0, while Portland climbed into undisputed possession of second place with a 10 to 0 victory over Seattle.

The win put the Ducks just one game behind the leading Seals, who dropped a notch by losing 6 to 1, to the last-place Hollywood Stars. The fading Oakland Oaks came to life suddenly to halt the winning streak of the Sacramento Senators, pounding out a 9 to 1 victory behind the five-hit pitching of Ken Douglas.

Canoe Derby Will Be Held To-morrow

Over the tide-ridden course which brought near disaster to some of the entries last year, seven pairs of paddlers will race to-morrow in the second Port Angeles to Victoria canoe derby. The direction will be reversed this year, with the finish listed for the Inner Harbor here. The paddlers are scheduled to start from Port Angeles at 8 o'clock in the morning and the leaders should reach Victoria about 1:30 o'clock. Communications by radiophone will be maintained between the convey ships and this city. Every precaution has been taken this year to avoid a repetition of near disasters which marred last year's race. Johnny and Frank Albany, Indian pair who were lost for several hours in the 1934 derby, will again be in the race this year.

G. Payne and Quainton Still Lead Averages

Former First in Batting Lists, While Latter Heads Bowlers in Victoria and District Cricket Association; Matches To-morrow

George Payne, young Five C's performer, had retained his leadership over other batsmen in the Victoria and District Cricket Association when batting and bowling averages for the season up to and including August 31 were computed. Payne, in thirteen innings, compiled 489 runs, including an even century, and retired with his wicket still standing five times for an average of 54.87 runs.

Beg-Verman, Incogs, was second in line. He still held the highest aggregate score and the highest one-inning stand, but his average was 49.40 per inning. Quainton, Five C's, leader in the bowling lists, was third, with a mean of 35.08. Quainton topped the bowlers with an average of one wicket for every 7.79 runs, an average slightly better than H. A. "Oldy" Goward of the Victoria Club. George Wilkinson of the latter outfit was right behind in third place.

Cowichan and Victoria Cricket Week figures were not included in the standings, which were as follows:

Batting—	No. of Innings	Total Runs	Highest Score	Times Not out	Average

Maxie Rosenbloom Meets Tiger Fox

Spokane, Wash., Sept. 6.—After a week of training here, in which he took his ring work seriously enough for four to six rounds of stiff sparring daily, Maxie Rosenbloom, New York, former light-heavyweight champion, was ready to meet Tiger Jack Fox, Spokane negro, in a ten-round fight in Gonzaga Stadium to-night.

Rosenbloom was the favorite in boxing circles, but Fox was appraised to-day as a dangerous foe.

YANKS RECALL MUELLER

New York, Sept. 6.—The New York Yankees to-day announced the recall of Fred Mueller, infielder, from Oakland of the Coast League.

Injuries Hamper English Elevens

Mrs. Fabyan Much Improved Player

Forest Hills, N.Y., Sept. 6.—Helen Hull Jacobs surprised the tennis world to-day by predictions Mrs. Sarah Palfrey Fabyan Brookline, Mass., is the player to beat if she wins her fourth successive American singles championship.

It had been generally conceded Katherine Stammers, comely English Miss would reach the final round.

"She's a greatly improved player over last year," said Miss Jacobs, of Mrs. Fabyan. "Personally, I feel she will give me a more difficult test than either of the other two."

WASHINGTON TO RECALL WEAVER

Washington, Sept. 6.—Monte Weaver, former Washington hurler, released to Albany of the International League in mid-season, will be recalled next week for another chance in the majors.

The Senators announced yesterday that Weaver, prize rookie of 1930, would join the club shortly and finish out the season with them.

Bahram Is Heavy Choice For Race

Doncaster, Eng., Sept. 6.—Eleven horses yesterday evening were listed as probable starters in the St. Leger Stakes to be run September 11. The Aga Khan's Bahram is top-heavy favorite.

The horses and jockeys are: Bahram (Fox), Buckleigh (A. Wragg), Fairbairn (Gordon Richards), Field Trail (Dick), Flash Bye (Brenan), Halran (Snijck), Flaxey (Perryman), T. Fry (Beyr), Solar Ray (Sirett). No jockeys have been chosen for Baodai and Batholdi.

The race is over the one and three-quarter-mile distance, one-quarter of a mile longer than the Derby, which Bahram won.

With Rangers again out in front interest lies in the struggle for second place. Some of the more prominent clubs started the year in disappointing fashion, but most of them showed a return to form last Saturday.

Further Honors To Montreal Aldred

Montreal, Sept. 6.—Already the holder of the Dominion championship, Aldred soccer team added another title to its list of season conquests yesterday evening by defeating Enard-St. Paul, 4 to 1, to win the National League eastern section series.

The team's trophy bag may get heavier in a few days at that. Saturday it plays in the final of the provincial championship, and next Tuesday in the semi-final of the charity cup series. It is also in the final of the Dunning Cup series.

Andronians are guests at Brock Park to-morrow, and Aberdeen is at home to Ayr United. The Dons can be expected to consolidate their position on the second rung of the league ladder.

Sharp-shooting Hamilton Academicals are at home to Partick Thistle, while Clyde take on Motherwell. Falkirk and St. Mirren, in the second division of the league, relegated to the Juniors at the end of last season, have started with a bang to regain senior status. Both clubs have four victories to their credit in as many starts.

NEWS IN BRIEF

Repairs to the culvert in Bowker Creek at Monterey Avenue, to cost approximately $100, were authorized by the Oak Bay Council yesterday.

A week's remand was granted in the Sanich Police Court yesterday in the assault charges involving William Thorne and J. P. Cocking. W. T. Straith appeared for Mr. Thorne and F. C. Elliott for Mr. Cocking.

H. H. Ham, vice-president of the "Ask Mr. Foster" bureau, is in the city to-day from Los Angeles, conferring with Miss Eame Thomson, in charge of the bureau at the Empress Hotel.

Joseph Lindal suffered an injury to his foot when he was struck by a hotel bus on Belleville Street yesterday afternoon. He was removed to St. Joseph's Hospital, where Dr. Walter Bapty attended him.

The annual meeting of First Cadboro Bay Sea Scout Group will be held at the Sea Scout Hall, Cadboro Bay, on Monday evening next, at 8.15 o'clock. All parents and friends are invited.

The regular monthly meeting of Ward 3 Liberal Association will be held at headquarters to-night, at 8 o'clock. J. B. Clearhue will address the meeting. All Liberals are invited to attend.

Mr. Justice E. V. Lucas of the Supreme Court to-day ordered a change in venue to Vancouver of the suit for divorce of Hilda May Southam van Oudenol against Pieter Johann Hattemer van Oudenol.

Councillors Richard Angus and R. Taylor, with R. F. Blandy, municipal clerk, will represent Oak Bay at the Union of B.C. Municipalities Convention at Harrison from September 11 to 14. They were appointed delegates by the council yesterday.

Official endorsement of Percy E. George as Reconstruction Party candidate in Victoria was this morning received by party headquarters from Warren K. Cook, Dominion chairman and treasurer of the Stevens organization.

Final passage of the by-law permitting a one year extension for realty property owners to redeem their properties from tax sale was given by the Oak Bay Council yesterday. Properties affected are mentioned in the by-law.

To permit municipal employees to attend the sixty-seventh annual fair of the North and South Sanich Agricultural Association, the Sanich Council yesterday evening authorized September 18 as a half holiday. The fair will be opened on September 17.

The first meeting and rehearsal of the newly formed Young Ladies' Choir will take place at Room 8, 617 Fort Street, Tuesday, September 10, at 8 o'clock. Mr. Llewellyn Jones will conduct this organization. Applications of those desiring to join should be made to the above address.

Fire this morning destroyed a mushroom shed at 3034 Cedar Hill Road, owned by R. C. Philpott. Damage totaled nearly $100, further loss being avoided by the arrival of the fire department which prevented the spread of the flames to adjoining chicken sheds.

Necessary changes in the Workmen's Compensation Act will be discussed by a joint committee of representatives from the Trades and Labor Council and members of the Victoria Bar Association. The labor body next Wednesday will choose the delegates to represent it at the meeting.

James Dole, "pineapple king" of Hawaii, who has been fishing with his son for Kamloops trout at his Canadian estate at Penak Lake, has arrived on the coast to meet Mrs. Dole, who is expected to reach Victoria tomorrow aboard the liner Niagara from Honolulu.

The Arion Male Voice Choir will begin rehearsal for its forty-fourth season of musical activity in Victoria on Monday evening next. This opening night will be in the nature of a smoker as a welcome to W. C. Fyvie, who has accepted the position of conductor. Thos. Kelway, the president, requests a full attendance of members.

A general invitation is issued to the public by John Wilkinson, superintendent of the Royal Oak Burial Park to inspect the grounds with their flower beds and well-kept lawns. The park has been greatly improved this year and presents a pleasing spectacle with its anemones, marigolds, stocks, petunias, asters and other blooms.

The following artists contributed to the programme presented to a crowd of nearly 2,500 persons from the Showboat in the Inner Harbor yesterday evening: Clifford Prescott, baritone; Miss Ethel Cole, soprano; Arthur Jackman, baritone; Madame Scott-Burritt, solo; Miss Dolly Rutledge, solo; and Harry Hay, solo.

The Victoria Choral Union will hold its first rehearsal of the season on Friday evening, September 13, at the Memorial Hall, when Stanley Bulley, the conductor, will direct the rehearsal. All former members, as well as new members, are requested to register at 8 o'clock. Herbert Kent, the president, will give a report to last year's activities and outline plans for the presentation of Brahms "Requiem" at Christ Church Cathedral on Remembrance Day, November 11, and for "The Messiah" in January.

Efforts to arrange a Lauder Club luncheon, at which Premier Hepburn would be the guest next Tuesday, were being made to-day by President A. D. Macfarlane of the club. Such a luncheon, it was explained, would be in the nature of an intimate gathering of the club members with the outstanding apostle of the new Liberalism in Canada. It was not known finally this afternoon whether Mr. Hepburn's itinerary could be adjusted to make possible the holding of the luncheon here.

EDUCATIONISTS TO VISIT HERE

Famous British Directors of Education Will Arrive in Victoria September 21

A delegation of British directors of education from the Old Country, including representatives of the Board of Education, the Scottish Department of Education and the Ministry of Education for northern Ireland as the guests of the National Council of Education of Canada in co-operation with the Provincial Department of Education, will arrive in Victoria on September 21.

The party is made up of a dozen distinguished men of letters who are prepared to lecture on a variety of subjects during their three days' stay in the city.

The invitation was made in conjunction with the twenty-fifth anniversary of the Overseas Education League through Lord Halifax. Its primary purpose is to acknowledge the generous hospitality which Canadian teachers and students have enjoyed in Great Britain during the last twenty-five years.

Representing the English Board of Education is G. T. Hankin, B.A., Staff-Inspector, Board of Education, scholar and Peppian prizeman, who specializes in the teaching of history and civics and the use of the mechanical aids to education.

Representing the Scottish Department of Education is D. D. Anderson, M.C., M.A., Inspector of Schools. He was educated at the High School of Glasgow and the University of Glasgow, graduating with first-class honors in modern languages. In 1923 he was appointed H. M. Inspector of Schools under the Scottish Education Department.

Representing northern Ireland is William D. Cousins, M. Com. Sc., director of education, Londonderry and Limavady. He was educated at the City of Belfast Model School, the Belfast School of Art and the Belfast Municipal College of Technology.

Nominated by the Welsh Department of Education is T. J. Rees, J.P., B.A., director of education for Swansea.

Nominated by the Overseas Education League is E. M. Rich, P.O.G.E., B.Sc., E. Salter Davies, C.B.E., M.A., director of education for Kent; Thos. B. Tilley, M.A., M. Litt., director of education for Durham, and J. E. Peark, M.A., M.B.S.T., director of education for Winchester.

Funeral Saturday Of Chas. G. Stuart

Funeral services for Charles Gordon Stuart, who passed away at the family residence, Cadboro Bay, on Wednesday, aged seventy-three years, will be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel to-morrow afternoon at 3.30 o'clock. Interment will be in Colwood Burial Park. It is requested no flowers be sent.

CABINET CHANGE FOR LITHUANIA

Canadian Press from Havas
Kaunas, Lithuania, Sept. 6.—Premier Juozas Tulebis resigned to-day with his cabinet, but reorganized it immediately with only two changes. Gen. Caplikas became Minister of the Interior in place of Col. Steponas Rusekska, and M. Putvinakis became Minister of Agriculture in place of Jonas Aleksa.

STALIN AT RED CONGRESS

Josef Stalin (left) and Georgi Dimitroff, former Communist leader who was expelled from Germany, are shown above as they conferred while attending the recent World Congress of the Comintern (Communist International) in Moscow. Replying to representatives from the British, United States, Japanese, Latvian and other governments against the activities of the Comintern in their countries, the Soviet government disclaimed any connection with or responsibility for acts of the Comintern.

Ada Mackenzie Wins Jasper Golf Honors

Jasper Park Lodge, Alta., Sept. 6.—Miss Ada Mackenzie, Toronto, won the women's title, 18-hole championship here to-day by defeating Miss Barbara Northwood, Winnipeg, in the final match, 4 and 3.

The Winnipeg put up a game fight, but her veteran opponent was too experienced in the match play game.

In the men's semi-finals, H. Black, Calgary, beat H. Ward, Regina, 4 and 2, and Rod Chadwick, Winnipeg, beat Paul Lehman, Minneapolis, 3 and 2. A brilliant feature of Chadwick's game was a hole in one on the fifteenth.

EXPECTS FUND TO BE RAISED

Archbishop Owen, Visiting Here, Stresses Strong, Hopeful Spirit of Church

ARCHBISHOP OWEN

"We are confidently hopeful that by next April we shall have achieved our objective," said Most Rev. Dervyn T. Owen, Archbishop of Toronto and Primate of the Church of England in Canada, speaking on the Anglican Church's restoration fund in an interview at the Empress Hotel to-day.

The primate, for the second time this year, reached Victoria yesterday afternoon as a member of the Masonic Scottish Rite party, being accompanied by Rt. Rev. L. W. B. Broughall, Bishop of Niagara, of Hamilton, Ont.

Archbishop Owen and his wife are taking the opportunity of remaining over in Victoria for a day or two. The primate will not participate in an "official" capacity in any church services while he is in Victoria.

Three years were set aside by the church to raise $1,076,250, the total amount of the restoration fund. The three-year period expires in April, 1938, and the archbishop is confident the full amount will be obtained. When he was here March 23 he had the pleasure of announcing that $633,000 had been subscribed, and of that amount $621,000 was represented in actual cash.

Since that time the various committees have been working steadily with promising results, leading to the conviction that the entire sum will be subscribed.

The matter of the restoration fund will come before the executive council of the synod, which will meet following the conference of the House of Bishops in Calgary next week, it was stated by Archbishop Owen.

He said the primary reason for his trip to the coast at this time was to attend these meetings in Calgary. The House of Bishops will meet on Friday next. This will be followed by meetings of the Missionary Board of the Anglican Church, and then the executive council of the synod will meet.

"I am gratified to be able to state that the church is holding its own in these difficult times," said Archbishop Owen. "The more I see of the more I am brought to realize the strong, hopeful spirit which has carried the church through the vicissitudes of the ages."

Henry Burt-Smith Died Early To-day

Henry Burt-Smith, a resident of this city for twenty-four years, passed away this morning at his home, 912 Fort Street.

Mr. Burt-Smith was born in Melbourne, Australia, sixty-six years ago, and was a wool merchant for many years, being latterly in the antique business.

Funeral services will be held at Hayward's B.C. Funeral Chapel to-morrow afternoon at 4.15 o'clock, after which the remains will be forwarded to Vancouver for cremation.

MARKET NOTES

A carload of Okanagan cantaloupes is expected on wholesale row to-morrow.

Another car of preserving peaches from Yakima is due here on Monday.

A car of citrus fruits arrived in Victoria this morning. The shipment included lemons, oranges and grapefruit.

Good quality Weathies from local orchards are making their appearance on the Victoria market.

Tomatoes are plentiful now and prices low. Both field and hothouse varieties are quoted at from four to seven cents a pound in local stores.

The first crop of corn is almost over.

CHECK MADE OF CONTACTS

No New Developments Reported From Two Small-pox Cases Here

No new developments were reported at noon to-day as city health officials worked to determine the source of two mild cases of smallpox discovered in the city yesterday.

Dr. Richard Felton, city medical health officer, spent the morning covering all contacts and in attempting to trace down the origin of the cases.

One, a man, was isolated in his home with his wife, while the other, a young woman, was resting in the Isolation Hospital.

Efforts of the city health department appeared to-day to have been successful in checking the spread of the disease. Several contacts have been vaccinated and no new developments have been discovered.

The department was working on a clue to-day which might reveal the cause of infection in the local cases. While details on the matter could not be gained, it was thought the disease had come in from some outside point.

FRANK WORDS TO JAPANESE

Sir F. Clarke Tells Mission Australia Opposes Nippon Expansion Southward

Canadian Press Cable via Reuter's Melbourne, Australia, Sept. 6.—The frank statement Australia would look askance at any Japanese expansion southward was made to-day to the head of a Japanese goodwill mission.

Sir Frank Clarke, president of the Victoria State Legislative Council for the last twelve years, made the remark during a speech at a luncheon tendered in honor of the mission. Katsujide Buchi headed the mission, which is returning a goodwill visit by Australians to Japan last year.

"We wish Japan well," said Sir Frank, "while she confines her expansion northward and westward, but not southward. We have recognized her for years as one of the most energetic and ambitious of races, overflowing her borders."

"I realize this speech is a grave indiscretion, but I am convinced Governor Huntingfield and all present will recognize its plain truth."

The Japanese leader took occasion to declare Japan was not interested in Ethiopia except as a market for Japanese cotton goods.

Fear Fire May Rain Watershed

Associated Press
Eugene, Ore., Sept. 6.—Spurred by a serious threat to the source of Eugene's water and power supply, 1,300 fire fighters battled on a five-mile front to-day in an attempt to halt the march of a forest fire that has swept over 1,500 acres of virgin timber in the upper McKenzie country.

The fire crested on a ridge dividing the McKenzie and Blue Rivers. Forest service officials fear the watershed will be destroyed should the flames continue out of control.

PAY LAST TRIBUTE

A large gathering of sympathizing friends attended funeral services yesterday afternoon for the late John Helm of Violet Avenue, Sanich. Services were conducted under auspices of the Bible Students' Association, led by K. Bennett, during which the hymns, "Saviour, Thy Dying Love," and "We Shall Meet Beyond the River," were sung.

The following acted as pallbearers: W. H. Graham, H. Malone, George Meyers, R. Rutherford, J. Malone and B. Cooper. Interment was made in the Royal Oak Burial Park.

Payment of general and relief accounts for July, totaling $7,923.60, was authorized by the Sanich Council yesterday evening.

DOUG FAIRBANKS TO MAKE FILMS

Movie Star to Produce Two Films Annually for United Artists Release

Hollywood—Ending a silence of many months concerning his plans both as a screen star and founder-member of United Artists, Douglas Fairbanks has made known his plan to produce two films a year for release through United Artists. On February 1, 1936, he begins production activities in Hollywood, and thereafter will make California his permanent home.

In re-entering the field of motion picture production in America after his brief association with Alexander Korda, Fairbanks joins Mary Pickford, Charlie Chaplin, Samuel Goldwyn, Walt Disney, David O. Selznick and Reliance Pictures as major contributors to the 1936 programme of United Artists. Under the terms of his agreement with that company he will be given complete freedom over story, cast, director and production policies and will operate as a separate producing unit releasing through United Artists.

Fairbanks, whose last appearance on the screen was in the Alexander Korda satire, "The Private Life of Don Juan," has behind him a twenty-year record of achievement as star and producer.

A significant aspect of his career is the fact that among the Fairbanks vehicles the most successful have been those produced by the star himself. These include: "Robin Hood," "The Mark of Zorro," "Thief of Bagdad," "Don Q" and "Son of Zorro," all released before 1926. During the next six years Fairbanks made "The Gaucho," "The Black Pirate," "The Iron Mask," "The Taming of the Shrew" (co-produced with Mary Pickford), "Around the World in Eighty Minutes" and "Mr. Robinson Crusoe."

Fairbanks, now in England, returns to Hollywood in January to begin the preparation of his first picture.

Crosby Likes To Go Fishing

Has Fourteen Different Fishing Rods to Choose From

Hollywood—If the average angler could sit down at a round table with a coterie of male film stars he would probably learn a thing or two about elusive trout in swift western streams. Mr. Average Fisherman would certainly be surprised at the technical knowledge of the sport possessed by Bing Crosby. Next to singing and acting and horses, Crosby finds greatest pleasure in reaching for one of his fourteen rods. His equipment is so complete that within a half hour he can lay out gear for anything from trout to swordfish.

Right now, however, Crosby has very little time for fishing. He is working in a new feature, "Two For To-night" with Joan Bennett.

W. C. Fields is as comical a sight fishing as he is cavorting across the screen in his latest film, "Man On the Flying Trapeze." Yet the comedian takes his sport seriously. There are no expensive rods for him. He is satisfied with a pole that costs a dollar. And Fields does not care whether he hauls out a sucker or a catfish, just as long as it is a fish.

OUT OUR WAY

HEROES ARE MADE—NOT BORN

MUSICAL HITS AT DOMINION

Popular Songs Are Heard in "Every Night at Eight," Which Opened To-day

To "Every Night at Eight," hilarious romantic musical comedy which opened to-day at the Dominion Theatre, goes the distinction of utilizing the timeliness and current popularity of the amateur radio hour and bringing it to the screen for the first time as a basic theme for a motion picture.

This picture serves a twofold purpose as well, not only in presenting George Raft in an entirely new characterization as an egotistical leader of an amateur dance band, but in introducing to film fans Frances Langford, radio songstress of considerable fame, who makes a highly favorable impression in her first screen role.

Crisp, crackling humor that so uproariously identifies the talents of that glib, adept comedienne Paty Kelly, wise-cracking antics of the blonde and attractive Alice Faye, the immensely laugh-provoking capers of the Three Radio Rogues, also stars of the air waves, the inevitably rib-tickling verbalities of Walter Catlett, combined with a romantic story and a half dozen or more catchy melodies, serve to make "Every Night at Eight" a screen confection of high entertainment.

The story concerns itself mainly with the adventures of Alice Faye, Frances Langford and Paty Kelly, fired from their jobs in a mint julep factory.

Outstanding song hits include "Then You've Never Been Blue," "Take It Easy," "I Feel a Song Coming On" and several others. "Every Night at Eight" is a musically appealing hit in its original plot, top-notch comedy and the necessary romantic ingredients.

GRACE MOORE WILL RETURN

Grace Moore, famous star of opera, motion pictures and the radio, will return to Victoria to-morrow when her latest film, "Love Me Forever," opens its local engagement at the Capitol Theatre.

If this picture must be compared with "One Night of Love," Miss Moore's first picture, there is no hesitation in saying that the new film surpasses her former triumph. "Love Me Forever" presents a dramatic and romantic story, tense and filled with suspense, while "One Night of Love" presented merely romance.

Emphasized still more in the new picture is the beautiful music. Victor Schertzinger, who made Miss Moore's previous film and who is responsible for the excellence of the direction of "Love Me Forever," has composed a new hit for this picture. It is said to be graceful and jitting.

Featured also are several selections from grand opera, chiefly "La Boheme," the quartette from "Rigoletto," "Il Bacio" and "Puccini-Funiculi."

PLAYHOUSE THEATRE

Hollywood now has a brain specialist to teach actors how to act "crasy." He is Dr. Samuel M. Marcus, internationally known psychiatrist, who was brought to Hollywood to serve as technical advisor on the production of Walter Wagner's "Private Worlds," now at the Playhouse Theatre. A psychological love story which represents the screen's first attempt to probe the repressions, complexes and inhibitions of humanity, it stars Claudette Colbert with Charles Boyer, Joan Bennett and Joel McCrea featured.

In the able cast Sol Lesser has assembled to support George O'Brien in Zane Grey's "The Dude Ranger," now at the Columbia Theatre, there are but two feminine roles. One, the lead, is played by Irene Harvey. The other, Martha, a servant, is played by Alma Chester.

Director Edward F. Cline paid attention to the extraordinary fact that in these two feminine players are represented the extremes of dramatic art. Alma Chester, former dramatic favorite and veteran player of lead

High Cards Mean Nothing When Partner Rejects Bidding, So Best Contract Is in Other Color

By WM. E. MCKENNEY

The lure of 100 honors has led many a duplicate player to his downfall. Now that the honor card has been eliminated, duplicate players may bid their hands in a more natural manner, and place the contract in the hand where it really should be.

If you were dealt the South hand you certainly would not expect to be the dummy. It is the diamond distribution that makes this an interesting hand.

Try it.

South's second round bid of four permitted his partner to play the hand.

Of all the South players who held these cards, only one stopped short of six spades, sacrificing his own hand in the interest of the partnership.

A CORRESPONDENT asks: In marriage, which takes the greater risk, the man or the woman? Unquestionably the woman does. A man stakes only a part of his happiness on marriage being a success, but a woman bets her whole life on the outcome of the venture. If the man loses out he is spiritually crippled, but he is never so completely bankrupt in heart as a woman is.

Marriage is far more important to a woman than it is to a man. It is the thing for which Nature created her and toward which she has a cosmic urge. It is the sphere alone in which she finds real contentment. It is her ambition and her dream. From the time a little girl can consciously think, she is planning her wedding. So when a woman marries, she is gambling with everything she has, and if she loses she is wiped out.

But with men marriage isn't the objective of life. It is something that is incidental, like buying a lottery ticket. Not the investment of one's whole fortune. It is something they can take or leave, and in their cooler moments most of them would prefer to leave it.

If a man's marriage turns out successfully, he is that much ahead and he congratulates himself upon his luck. If his marriage is a failure, it is just too bad. He is hurt and disappointed, but he has his business, his career, his ambitions, a thousand other interests.

But if a woman's marriage is unhappy, she has nothing to fall back upon. Her interests are all centered in the home, her very individuality merged in her husband's. She has given to him the years of her youth in which she might have fitted herself for some career or got a start in business. And it's too late to start all over again.

An unhappy marriage is never the tragedy for men that it is for women. Even in divorce this is true. Divorce doesn't throw a man out of his job or deprive him of his way of making a living. He doesn't have to crawl back with the children to his parents to be an undesired parasite upon them. Nor does his being divorced prevent him from remarrying if he wishes to do so.

But the divorced woman who knows nothing but home-making only too often finds that in losing her husband she has lost the only job she was fitted for and has no way of supporting herself. And so she has to go back to the parents who do not want her and resent her failure to have made a go of her marriage.

And when it comes to marriage men grow cautious and regard the divorcee with as much suspicion as they would any other proposition that had failed. It might look good, but they hesitate to invest in it.

Another reason why marriage is a greater risk for women than it is for men is because women are better matrimonial material than men are. They are more adapted to the holy estate. They possess more of the qualities that go to make a happy marriage than men have.

Women are better lovers for one thing, and the man who marries a girl who is in love with him has a reasonable certainty that she will stay in love with him to the end of the chapter and still think him a Prince Charming, no matter how fat and paunchy and bald-headed he gets. A man virtually takes no chance on his wife ceasing to care for him if he treats her even halfway decently.

But when a girl gets married she knows that she is simply betting on her chance of holding her husband's affections after she has lost her complexion and figure. There is no possible way that she can tell if he will settle down into being good old Darby who will love and cherish her all her days, or turn into Lothario who will pass her up for his platinum-blond stenographer. It is all on the knees of the gods and Fate deals the cards for her.

Then, too, when a girl marries she takes a far greater chance on whether her husband will be true to her than he does on her. There are very few philandering wives. Very few women ever look at any man except their husbands after they are married, and the last thing the average husband has to worry over is losing his wife. But with a vast number of husbands marriage is no bar to flirtation. They still have an eye-out for every pretty face and a young foot—that makes them get up and follow every fluttering petticoat, and no art or wit of their wives can make them stay put at their own firesides.

Most men at least get faithful wives, but when a girl marries she gambles on getting a faithful husband. And the blue chip she lays down on the table is her heart.

And it is because a woman's happiness is more bound up in a marriage than a man's is, and there are more ways she can lose out than a man can, that the woman's risk in marriage is greater than the man's.

Uncle Wiggily's Water Slide

By HOWARD R. GARIS

After Uncle Wiggily had made an early Christmas tree for the animal girls and had taken off the presents and eaten the ice cream, cake, candy and nuts (just like a real Christmas), Baby Buntie thought of something. "Yes, Buntie, I did," answered the rabbit gentleman. "What about it, my dear?" Buntie, "that if you could make a Christmas tree free of time maybe you could make some ice cream and a slide of time and we could have rides and slides and all things like that before we pack up and go back home from Green Lake. Could you, Uncle Wiggily, make a slide down hill for us?" "Well, Buntie," said Mr. Longears. "I can't make ice and snow and winter weather come about time. I did make the Christmas or Present Tree ahead of time, but that's all I can do." "Then we can have a sliding fun," said Buntie sadly. "Oh, I think so," said Uncle Wiggily, laughing. "Even though I can't make winter snow and ice now I can make a slide for you and the other children to play on before we go back home to Woodland." "Oh, can you, Uncle Wiggily? And will you?" asked Buntie, giving him a kiss and a hard hug. "Yes, I will," kindly answered the rabbit gentleman. "What kind of a slide?" asked Buntie. "A water slide," said Uncle Wiggily. "Call all the other children and you shall see the water slide being made and then you may have fun on it." "Will it be in deep water?" asked Buntie. "For, like all rabbits except the kind that live down south in swamps, she wasn't a good swimmer." We were the rabbits of Uncle Wiggily.

shouted! Uncle Wiggily took some slides himself, and once he turned a somersault. And if the cigar band will play a tune for the children, make a slide, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily's good-bye adventure.

HOROSCOPE

"The stars incline, but do not compel." SATURDAY, SEPTEMBER 7, 1935. Benefic stars rule today, according to astrology. It is a day most auspicious for journeys, especially visits to relatives. Only the fourth day of the month has anything of importance under this configuration, for it encourages outdoor recreation, Good feeling should prevail under this sway. Farmers are under a promising rule of the stars which seems to predict a sudden rise in the price of foodstuffs and general improvement in the marketing of produce. This is not an auspicious day for signing important papers and, it may prove to be unlucky for letters that are to have future significance. Turkey is to become involved in intrigue affecting the Soviet Government and the United States, it is prophesied. Foreign affairs are to be not only puzzling but threatening. Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of uncertainties that will be of extraordinary intelligence and they are likely to be able to mold their policies successfully. Pierpont Morgan, banker, was born on this day last. (Copyright, McClure Newspaper Syndicate)

ACCOUNTANTS TO AID ABERHART

Winnipeg, Sept. 6.—Chartered accountants can more readily assist in putting Premier Aberhart's social credit policies in force in Alberta than any other profession, President J. Gray Mundle told the Dominion Association of Chartered Accountants yesterday. With indications pointing to Mr. Aberhart choosing technical experts to put his plan in operation, Mr. Mundle suggested the new Premier select chartered accountants for the task. In Great Britain, he said, accountants were on many boards of public and private companies. Accountants from Victoria to Charlottetown are attending the association's convention. At the opening session yesterday all the provinces except New Brunswick were represented among the 245 delegates, three of whom were registered from United States cities. It takes 12,000 cattle heads to make one pound of the pituitary substance used in medical science.

HIRING HALL IN HONOLULU

Honolulu, Sept. 6.—Hawaii's first marine union hiring hall was established here yesterday by representatives of the Seamen's Union and the Marine Firemen, Wipers and Oilers' Union, who arrived recently from the Pacific Coast. Randolph Sevier, manager of the steamship department of Castle and Cooke, agents for the Matson Line, said all steamship companies were hiring all deckmen and firemen through the hall, but had no other connection with it.

RAILWAYS ASK MORE SUPPORT

Possible Service Curtailment Coming, Says Coleman; Beatty Approves Statement

Toronto, Sept. 6.—The Canadian public was asked today to support the railways or entertain the possibility of a skeletonized service from Halifax to Vancouver.

D. C. Coleman, senior vice-president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, told an audience of transportation officials and commercial travelers at the Canadian National Exhibition, the railways of Canada were approaching a crisis, and foretold an important announcement of policy before the close of the present year.

"We have failed to realize the importance of railways in our national life," said Mr. Coleman. "We have endeavored by every means at our disposal to divert traffic from the railways. We have subsidized bus lines, air traffic and built magnificent highways, all of which decreased the revenue of the railways."

The speaker declared many persons criticized the railways for not replacing their equipment, speeding up service and following the streamlining trend popular in the United States.

"Is it reasonable to expect the Canadian railways, with an outlay of more than $600,000,000 in rolling stock, to replace this added expense in a time of shrinking revenues?" Mr. Coleman asked.

The railway official declared the transcanada highway, or a transcanada air service would not replace the railways.

"Canadian railway freight rates are the lowest in the world," he said. "Wheat, timber and general freight are transported long distances at rates below those of any other country."

Mr. Coleman declared passenger revenues of Canadian railways had decreased 85 per cent in the last seventeen years, and said unless public support was afforded the railways further curtailment of service would be necessary.

Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Canadian railways will obviously take every step within their power to win back to their lines traffic lost to competing forms of transportation, Sir Edward Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, said here today.

He endorsed statements made at Toronto yesterday by Vice-President D. C. Coleman, asking Canadians to give more support to their railways as an alternative to a skeletonized service.

Competition of other transportation modes will be increased rather than diminished with the rapid advance in air service, probably with the next few years, Sir Edward said.

"There is a limit, however, beyond which the railways cannot go in a period of declining revenues and, therefore, limitations in service, no matter how repugnant, may be necessary. I hope they will not be."

Streamlining is not in itself an important factor, but it has a value from the standpoint of newness and, therefore, sales appeal.

"It is not necessary to repeat what has been said respecting the loss of our freight rates. They have been made deliberately so because of the handicap of Canadian producers through distance and geography. Canadian railways during the past five years have reduced 100 rates to one that have increased and this voluntarily for business reasons and not compulsively by order of the board of railway commissioners."

"Fair and just regulation of all transportation service is absolutely essential if the railways are to maintain their place in the life of this country. Unregulated competition is obviously unfair and as Canada must depend for its main transportation services on the steam lines it is disappointing that such regulation has been so long deferred."

McGeer Urges Investigation
Vancouver, Sept. 6.—Mayor G. O. McGeer yesterday urged a committee of inquiry into the circumstances of the Vancouver waterfront strike, together with efforts at mediation.

Mayor McGeer said he took the action after being informed the federal minister had indicated to the Vancouver and District Trades and Labor Council that steps were being taken to hold a full investigation into the waterfront situation with a view to bringing about a settlement.

Four Seamen Feared Lost

Shipwrecked, N.B. Sept. 6.—Captain Emile Savoie and his crew of four were feared today to have been wrecked on a small island off the coast of New Brunswick, and identified as parts of the two-masted schooner A. Savoie, small Shipagan fishing craft missing since August 25.

The patrol boat, sent to search for the schooner, returned with a rudder and other wreckage identified as having come from the missing vessel.

The four men aboard the schooner in addition to Captain Savoie were Joseph Savoie, Joseph Bulger, Patrick Lantagne and Eugene Mattel, all married. Their families include thirty-two young children.
